

Sunday Worship Celebration
The Sacred Words of Christ - "The Rule of Life"

Today's Message:

"But if we judged ourselves truly, we would not be judged. But when we are judged by the Lord, we are disciplined so that we may not be condemned along with the world." 1 Corinthians 11:31-32

Jesus continues His statements about what it means to live as a believer and not someone who just gives lip service to the pious life. He begins this section by explaining the right way to judge. First, judge yourself correctly, then you will be able to help others. He expresses the problem with what people seek. This demonstrates in what or whom they are trusting. He finalizes this with the golden rule "do unto others...". We could easily slip by this section because it is so familiar to us and it has been illustrated time and again. However, it is just because it is so familiar that we need to pay close attention to the words of Christ and realize how important they are if we are to live our lives in a way that best honors Jesus Christ. May we focus again on both the obvious and the underlying messages of this great section of Scripture.
