

Sunday Worship Celebration The Sacred Words of Christ - "The Calling"

Today's Message:

"I therefore, a prisoner for the Lord, urge you to walk in a manner worthy of the calling to which you have been called," Ephesians 4:1

Jesus was deliberate in His calling of the 12 apostles. Matthew recalls the need for workers to complete the harvest. His focus is on the needs of the people to have someone to minister to them. They are waiting, expecting to come into the harvest, but they need someone to call them, disciple them and help build them in the faith. The calling to ministry may be a dramatic as Elisha's call, or as simple as giving you an opportunity to minister to the needs of others. In each case, we see that Jesus is the "Lord of the Harvest" and we are to be the workers who plant, water and harvest individuals to be vital members of the church Jesus is building. We are to do this work with humility, gentleness and patience and seek to be spiritually unified under the Lordship of Christ. May each of us see how we fit into God's perfect plan for His church and be willing to use the gifting and calling He has made upon us.
