

Community and Family Resources and Links

LOCAL RESOURCES

www.wspa.com

This is the local news station where you will find updated information on their station runner in the cases of inclement weather or school delays/closings.

www.upstateforever.org

Find out about things to do in the Upstate and more about this area from Upstate Forever.

www.active-living.org

At Partners for Active Living you can learn more about healthy options and active programs and partnerships with communities in the Upstate.

FAMILY AND CHILD RESOURCES AND SERVICES

www.spartanburgqualitycounts.org

We partner with Quality Counts and are guided to follow higher standards in early childhood education. The focus is to create an environment that strives to engage the children and families and better equip them for a successful future in education.

www.1steps.org

First Steps focuses on children ages birth to 5, with programs to help parents and caregivers. Some programs include: Early Headstart, Imagination Library free book program, Quality Counts, and Family Health.

www.scpitc.org

This is the South Carolina Program for Infant/Toddler Care. You will find good information about care, development, health and safety in their "Families" section.

www.scchildcare.org

This is the Department of Social Services website, providing helpful information and resources for families.

www.sc-ccrr.org

This is the South Carolina Child Resource and Referral network. They support families to raise healthy children and provide important information and tips about child development.

www.cacsp.org

This is the Children's Advocacy Center. They provide services to children who have been sexually or physically abused. Resources are available to parents, caregivers and educators.

JUST FOR FUN

www.scholastic.com

This is not only the place to go for your child's online book orders, but is also a place to resource fun activities for children of all ages!