

Adult Sunday School Classes

Asbury, Rooms 102/102

This is a large class which uses a rotation of teachers to study the Cokesbury Adult Bible Study series. They are a close-knit group of seniors who have several activities throughout the year, such as their annual Fall retreat. Caring and supportive of all members, they welcome visitors.

Beatitudes, Room 209

This class enjoys a variety of contemporary topical studies based on scripture and class members rotate as teachers. They share seasonal activities in members' homes.

Becomers, Room 207

This class discusses selected topics using a variety of Bible-based materials, such as books and videos. A mixed group of both singles and couples, they enjoy fellowship at monthly gatherings.

Homebuilders, Room 208

This large class is led by Bud Abbott who presents material from the Cokesbury Adult Bible Studies for class discussion. Active and involved, the members share coffee and goodies before the lesson.

Hope, Room 104

This medium-sized class studies and discusses current events and life topics with a Biblical focus.

New Beginnings, Room 305

A class of both singles and couples, they study a variety of Bible-based contemporary materials through lecture and discussion. This is a medium-sized class of people eager to study and grow in their faith.

Next Step, Room 36

Newly formed, this class is for college-age adults. The class is led by Brooke Kitchens, Lee Crenshaw and Barr Brooks.

Pathfinders, Room 211

This young adult class of 20 and 30-somethings is led by Sandra Watson and uses contemporary books to study Christian topics and personal growth. They share morning treats and great fellowship.

Wesleyan, Family Life Center, Lobby Classroom

A small class of senior adults, Charles Farmer leads the class studying the Adult Bible Study series. With a motto of “Love One Another”, this fun group would love for you to join them.
