

Connecting with God, One Another & Our Mission in the World

All Saints at Bethlehem

All Saints is a time to remember our loved ones who have died. To mark All Saints at Bethlehem, our worship services include times to remember our beloved departed. We'll hear the names and see the faces of people of Bethlehem who have died since last All Saints Day. We'll have the opportunity to light a candle and remember the light that shined and still shines through our loved ones. Plan to bring a friend or family member to share in this meaningful time of worship and remembering: Saturday, October 31st at 5:15, Sunday, November 1st at 8:30 & 10:10, and Wednesday, November 4th at 6:15.

Advent Series: The Power of Yes

In this liminal time, there are so many reasons to not say yes.

Even the small yeses in our daily lives feel riskier somehow. Decisions about where we put our money, our time, our energy, our confidence, and our faith feel more important than ever during these volatile times. We come from a history of people who said yes. Throughout the story of the people of God, brave and faithful, everyday people said yes to God. In Advent, these yeses are even more significant.

What does it take to get to yes? Why does it matter? Why does it matter that we believe this? This is a story that we tell, that isn't just on a page or in ancient tales, but one that lives in our bones, and calls to us to say our own yes when we are called into what God is doing now.

FROM THE PASTOR

Blessed People of Bethlehem,

This November, as we anticipate celebrating Thanksgiving, I want to clearly say, "Thank you!" Thank you for the many ways that you are blessings in the community, in your everyday relationships, and in your participation in the life of Bethlehem Lutheran Church.

There are times when I reflect on the reality of being a "transplanted Lutheran." I am grateful for the gracious way that the Lutheran Church welcomed my family many years ago when I was a teenager. At other times I am struck by how deeply the Bethlehem and Lutheran worship have shaped me.

One element of Lutheran worship that is very powerful is one of the "old school" prayers in the Lutheran Book of Worship (aka, the green hymnal). After the offering is received, the congregation joins the leader in praying:

Blessed are you,

O Lord our God, maker of all things. Through your goodness you have blessed us with these gifts. With them we offer ourselves to your service and dedicate our lives to the care and redemption of all that you have made, for the sake of him who gave himself for us, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

I invite you to pray this prayer, and to ponder this prayer as well.

- What does this prayer teach about God?
- What does this prayer teach us about what God is doing in our lives?
- What does this prayer lead us to practice in our lives?
- What does this prayer teach us about Jesus?

This month, we not only anticipate celebrating Thanksgiving, we also invite all the people of Bethlehem to prayerfully plan how we all may "offer ourselves to [God's] service and dedicate our lives to the care and redemption of all that [God has] made." We are indeed blessed to be a blessing.

Thank you for the many ways that you and your generosity make a difference at Bethlehem and beyond!

PASTOR JEFF

8th Grade Confirmation Schedule

We are busy learning about the Bible and ourselves. We will be focusing on the Fruits of the Spirit, to round out the year. Did you know that there are a total of 66 books in the Bible? There are 39 in the Old Testament and 27 in the New Testament. You can remember that by using some math. For the Old Testament, simply count the letters in Old (3) and Testament (9). Put the two together (39) for the right answer. For the New Testament, another simple equation. Count the letters in New (3) and Testament (9). This time multiply those numbers (3X9=27) for the right answer.

Here is a look at the calendar for next few weeks:

Blessed to Be a Blessing Generosity Appeal

Bethlehem is an amazing community of blessing! Our Blessed to Be a Blessing generosity appeal invites everyone who is blessed through Bethlehem to share in supporting the ministries that we do together.

One recent example of the generosity of Bethlehem is the amazing response to Caring for God's House, our special summer appeal for facility and campus needs. "Thank you" to everyone who gave to this special appeal! The people of Bethlehem have a remarkable history of rising to the challenge of funding facility and property needs.

Bethlehem means "house of bread." Our Blessed to Be a Blessing appeal lifts up three vital ways that we live out our name:

- Respond to physical hunger: Support Wednesday suppers, to-go meals, and our partnership with Midwest Street Medicine as food costs rise.
- Minister to spiritual hunger: Strengthen small groups and gatherings, expand home communion, and train members to care for others.
- Sustain ministry excellence: Support our pastors and staff, meet rising costs, and replace aging church software that helps people connect and receive care.

Our Blessed to Be a Blessing appeal reminds us that grace comes freely in Jesus Christ. We give in gratitude, sharing the blessings God has placed in our care. Picture a neighbor receiving a warm meal, someone finding friendship, and a member receiving Holy Communion at home. Your generosity helps make this ministry possible.

As we prepare for Commitment Week on November 14, 15, and 18, we invite you to prayerfully consider your giving for 2027. Bring your Statement of Intent to worship during Commitment Week or return it by mail or complete it online using the QR code in the brochure mailed to the people of Bethlehem.

Whatever you discern to give, thank you for helping Bethlehem welcome, worship, teach, and serve. We are blessed to be a blessing.

SPARK JOY! From Extra to Essential

What if the difference between feeling invisible and feeling essential is simply being seen?

Join us for an inspirational Spark Joy event with Emily Magera, who will share the message from her 2026 TEDx Sioux Falls presentation.

Emily pulls back the curtain on how communication works on a television set and reveals a powerful truth about the way we see and value one another: people don't rise because of status—they rise because someone chose to see them.

This is a message for anyone who has ever felt blurry in someone else's story—and for anyone who has the power to bring someone else into focus.

Being essential isn't about how many scenes you're in. It's about how fully you show up for the ones you have.

Come be inspired, bring a friend, and discover a fresh perspective on the difference one person can make.

TUESDAY LADIES

Please gather with us for the Tuesday Ladies Advent book study "Then Sings My Soul" by Robert Morgan. We will explore some of the world's greatest hymn stories that have inspired so many for years. We will reflect on the impact hymns have had on us and how they speak to our soul as we walk through Advent. There is no cost to this study; but you will get to share your singing voice! This session begins on Tuesday, November 17, at 7:00 pm in the Fireside Room.

Please contact Jolinda Finley at jfinley91@gmail.com or Crystal Swenson at crystal0955@gmail.com if you are interested so we have plenty of handouts.

A Life of Curiosity and Wonder

By Janis Heier

Regardless of age, there is a gift in remaining curious.

Literature, music, art, dance, history, philosophy, and the many stories human beings have created to understand life can enrich us in ways that are both timeless and deeply personal. They invite us to ask questions, see the world through another's eyes, embrace beauty, and sometimes even discover something new about ourselves. When we remain curious and engaged, we become students for life.

The apostle Paul offers this beautiful encouragement: "Whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is pleasing, whatever is commendable...if there is any excellence and if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things." (Philippians 4:8)

As we move toward Advent, a season of waiting and wonder, perhaps we can create space for curiosity. Consider this an invitation to notice the beauty and goodness around us. Play the music. Hang the piece of art that causes you to pause. Pull that book of poetry from the shelf and linger over a few pages. Attend the concert or theater production. These experiences can deepen our understanding of one another and open our eyes to the tremendous beauty God offers us daily.

May we slow down enough to notice beauty, listen deeply, learn something new, and remain open to the ways God continues to speak through the arts and culture—the people, stories, creativity, and world around us.

And now, I am off to see the ballet, Swan Lake!

Curiosity and wonder can keep our hearts open to God.

In Christ's peace,
Janis Heier & Ann Rasmussen
