WORDS OF HOPE & ENCOURAGEMENT
in the text.
The deepest parts of who we are rise up. They can't help it.
We will not go back to normal. Normal never was. Our pre-corona existence was not normal other than we normalized greed, inequity, exhaustion, depletion, extraction, disconnection, confusion, rage, hoarding, hate and lack. We should not long to return, my friends. We are being given the opportunity to stitch a new garment. One that fits all of humanity and nature.

--- Sonya Renee Taylor
Hindsight is 2020

While we all were hidden amidst the fear, and all the while, People dusted off their instincts, they remembered how to smile.

People started clapping to say thank you, and calling up their mums, While the car keys gathered dust they would look forward to their runs.

And with the skies less full of voyagers, the earth began to breathe, The beaches bore new wildlife that scuttled off into the seas.
Hindsight is 2020

Some people started dancing, some were singing, some were baking, We’d grown so used to bad news, but good news was in the making.

And so when we found the cure, and were allowed to go outside, we all preferred the world we found to the one we’d left behind.

Old habits became extinct, and they made way for the new, And every simple act of kindness was hereby given its due.
Hindsight is 2020

We now call it
The Great Realization.
And yes, since then
there have been many.

But that’s the story of how it started,
and why,
Hindsight is 2020.

Settle right into your skin, dear one. What a great delight you are. Be content and proud of your range, the lane you thrive in, the capacity in which you blossom.

Rephrase Martha’s words in Luke 10:40.
• can you soften them a bit?

In Bethany, Jesus had a place of welcome and rest.
• What is a place of refuge for you?
• Where are you looking forward to going, once you are able?
• Does your home provide welcome and rest for your family members, friends, or neighbors?

Read John 11:20-21 and verse 32.
• Do you think we are all more alike at heart, if we let go of our differences?
• When have you been able to overlook differences and discover how much you are alike someone else?

Read John 11:27.
• How does this differ from Martha’s earlier frustration?
• What helps you, even now, trust and believe in God?
