What the Things Around Us Are Thinking

You're running me AGAIN?
You just ran me!

You saw the screentime report. Maybe put me down and pick up a book.

Now I understand why Laura Ingalls would get so excited when she’d get to go into town with Pa.
After being in lockdown so long, the animals have started to check in on us.
Had I known in March that it was the last time I would be in a restaurant, I would have ordered the dessert.

HYGENESIS 24:7
Please take your clothes out of the closet regularly, air them out and allow to stand in sunlight. Recent studies show that if clothes are kept in closets over lockdown, they shrink.

woman of valor
absurd

So untrue or impossible it is funny.

So untrue or unreasonable as to be laughable or ridiculous.

Impossible to take seriously; silly.

Now draw some out...

In Jesus we can have:

A confident theology of abundance

NOT

A fearful theology of scarcity
Proverbs 31 woman is a star not because of what she does but how she does it—with valor. So do your thing. If it’s refurbishing old furniture—do it with valor. If it’s keeping up with your two-year-old—do it with valor. If it’s fighting against human trafficking . . . leading a company . . . or getting other people to do your work for you—do it with valor. Take risks. Work hard. Make mistakes. Get up the next morning. And surround yourself with people who will cheer you on.

---Rachel Held Evans, A Year of Biblical Womanhood
Zacchaeus was a wee little man
But a happy man was he
For he had seen the Lord that day
And a happy man was he;
And a very happy man was he
Without Jesus, life is dull and stale and flat; when Jesus comes into it, life becomes vivid and sparkling and exciting.

Without Jesus, life is drab and uninteresting; with Jesus it is thrilling and exhilarating.
