Answering God's Call

As we grow in our faith, we become more attuned to God's will for our lives. Yet, what are we to do when we feel God calling us to something that requires a financial commitment for which we do not have the means to respond? Are we to ignore the call or should we step out in faith and say, "Here I am, Lord!"?

Once you have discerned through prayer that God is indeed calling you to a specific mission ministry, and this has been confirmed by others who know you well, then you must personally accept the responsibility – including financial – for your participation. The first thing you should consider are the financial sacrifices you can make before asking others to make them with you. What is your own personal financial strategy?

If you find that you still simply cannot afford to take this step without assistance, then you must take a spiritual leap of faith and trust that the financial means will ultimately be provided. Of course, faith and trust in God do not imply that you are to sit back and wait for money and checks to come to you. You still have the responsibility to be proactive in providing opportunities for others to financially share in your mission.

Resurrection Mission Ministries Guidelines and Resources

It is impossible for every ministry area of the church to consider financial requests for every worthy cause, including your personal journey. Therefore, we must ask that you do not go to individual ministry areas of the church – such as Sunday School, Singles Ministries, Small Groups (other than your own), etc. – to request financial assistance. Your request may interfere with their existing mission strategy or the time they have scheduled for their curriculum. Your request may also result in a competitive situation with other people on the same or a different serve trip who have also requested financial assistance.

Again, we ask that you do not personally fundraise (or request material goods) from ministry areas of the church.

"So," you say, "if I cannot fundraise in my own church, how will I be able to raise funds for my personal involvement in missions, and specifically the mission trip coming up for which I stepped out in a leap of faith?"

Some Suggestions for "Money for Serve Trips"

- Pray that God will lead you to resources for this trip.
- Evaluate once again your own personal situation and see if there are any surprising places God might provide unexpected resources, i.e. a refund check or bonus, birthday gifts, etc. What sacrifices can you make to contribute toward your trip? Money towards personal items instead can be set aside for your trip. What could you do to earn or make the money you need? Babysit, mow lawns, water plants etc.
- Look outside Church of the Resurrection. Friends, relatives, co-workers, neighbors, even unexpected unbelievers, might feel blessed to invest in you and your journey. Don't hesitate to ask them or others who come into your path, if they would like to support your serve trip. The best recruiter in the world for missions is – you!
- Inside Church of the Resurrection – within your personal relationships. Ask for prayer from your personal friends, including your own small group at Resurrection, explaining to them during a time of sharing what you are doing and why you feel led by the Lord to go on this specific trip. Ask them to pray with you while you are on the serve trip and also to specifically pray that you will receive the financial help you feel you need for this ministry. You might tell them that if they feel personally led, you have more information about the trip, or they can visit www.cor.org/globalimpact. Then just set the information in a place where they may pick it up, or give it to them as they request. Be discreet and humble!

- Do not ask people in the church who do not personally know you! We must request that you not ask pastors or staff. Do not go into ministry areas in which you are not involved. (Even in the small group or ministries in which you are involved, you might ask the facilitator if they feel it is appropriate for you to request prayer and mention your financial need during a time of sharing.)

Tools to Assist You in Your Fundraising

A Sample Letter is attached which should be modified in your own words to convey your personal journey and reasons why you feel led to be on this mission trip.

How to Process Support Money for a Serve Trip

- Include with your letter a self-addressed return envelope for them to send their check back to you, not to the church. While the checks should be payable to Church of the Resurrection, you are responsible for collecting your support and delivering it to the Global Impact Ministries Office.
- Include an instruction sheet or include the following information within your letter:
  - Supporters who wish to deduct their support on their taxes should make their check payable to Church of the Resurrection, but MUST NOT designate the gift to you anywhere on the check.
  - Supporters must understand that giving is to Church of the Resurrection, which will then support your participation. The money will not go to you personally, and will not be refundable.
  - Any funds above and beyond the cost of your trip will be used by Global Impact Ministries to help defray other expenses of the serve trip.
- Checks should be made payable to “Church of the Resurrection.”
  - Hand deliver the checks to the Global Impact Ministries Office as soon as possible, contact staff to schedule.
- Credit cards may now be used online, through our Managed Missions software. Ask Staff for details.
- Follow up each financial gift with a personal thank you note.
- Upon your return, send a report to your supporters (you may include a token gift from the trip, i.e., a picture, small and inexpensive article made in the mission country), invite them to the celebration and sharing event for your serve trip at Church of the Resurrection. THANK THEM FOR THEIR CONTRIBUTION TO THE SERVE TRIP!

A Word About Financial Support

Remember that God is our provider, not people, though He works through people. Trusting Him to supply for your serve trip is a spiritual adventure of faith. Consider it part of your growth and faith journey that you will go through in preparation for the task ahead.

Not only will you be raising financial support, but:

- You have an opportunity to grow in faith. You may become discouraged at times and question your call to serve on a trip. These are the trying times that will challenge but can ultimately strengthen your faith. This process often helps people learn to adapt to the kind of difficult, even desperate, circumstances they may encounter on their serve trip.
- A Prayer Team will result. When other Christians know about your service, whether or not they support you financially, they are likely to pray for you too.
- You will be helping raise awareness. As you become an ambassador and recruiter, sharing your enthusiasm, dedication, testimony and call with others will challenge them and stimulate interest.

Re: Prayer and Consideration of my mission to _____ on _____.

Dear _____:

God has been working in my life and has opened doors for me to participate in an exciting and challenging international serve trip sponsored by the United Methodist Church of the Resurrection. The trip will take place in _____ (country) on _____ (date) 2018. The team will (list purpose of the serve trip) _____.

I am excited to become a part of this team, and I am asking for your support as a prayer partner, not just for me but for the entire team. I pledge to keep you informed of the team's progress and to invite you to a celebration and sharing of photographs, slides and testimonies upon our return.

The cost of the trip is $_____, and I am seeking to raise a portion of the funds through those who are led to become mission partners. If you would be willing to support me in this ministry, please complete the attached form and write a check payable to Church of the Resurrection. Please return it to me directly. For your own tax deduction purposes, do not note my name on the check. If more financial support is raised than I personally need for this trip, the additional funds will be used to support the ongoing mission in _____ (country).

If you have any questions, please contact me or go to www.cor.org/globalimpact.

Thank you for your prayers, support and encouragement. I am anxious to share my serve trip experiences with you upon my return.

Serving with God's love, sincerely,
