When a Disciple Denies his Lord

- I. The First Denial (John 18:13-17)
- II. The Second Denial (66-68)
  - Cf. John 18:18 - Now the slaves and the officers were standing there, having made a charcoal fire, for it was cold and they were warming themselves; and Peter was also with them, standing and warming himself.
  - Luke 22:55 - After they had kindled a fire in the middle of the courtyard and had sat down together, Peter was sitting among them.

When a Disciple Denies his Lord

- III. The Third Denial (69-70a)
- IV. The Fourth Denial (70b-72)
  - Cf. John 18:26 - One of the slaves of the high priest, being a relative of the one whose ear Peter cut off, said, "Did I not see you in the garden with Him?"

The Lessons for Us...

- 1) To remind us of the seriousness of denying our Lord.
  - a) By remaining silent when God or His truth is being attacked.
  - b) By living in a way that denies our profession.
  - c) By hiding the fact that we are Christians from the people around us.
  - d) By being unwilling to speak for Christ and the gospel out of fear of what others will think of us.

Mark 14:66-72

The Lessons for Us...

- 2) To encourage those who would deny their Lord in the future.
- 3) To illustrate God's willingness to forgive any sin when there is repentance.
- 4) To demonstrate the perseverance of the saints thru the keeping power of Jesus.

The Lessons for Us...

- 5) To illustrate a basic reality of the Christian life.
  - There are only two possible sources of spiritual strength...
    - (1) Self-confidence -- trust in one's own strength.
    - (2) Humble dependence -- trust in God's strength.
  - 2 Cor. 4:7 – We have this treasure in earthen vessels, so that the surpassing greatness of the power will be of God and not from ourselves.
  - 2 Cor. 12:9-10
- 6) To contrast Jesus' faithfulness with Peter's unfaithfulness.
