Do I Ever Please God?

Selected Scriptures

I. Pleasing God Before Christ

- Nothing we did was good, righteous, or pleasing to God.

Do I Ever Please God?

Selected Scriptures

II. Pleasing God After Christ

- A. Every believer can perform works God considers to be good, righteous, and pleasing to Him.
- B. Although you are forever justified, your choices affect God's disposition and response toward you as His child.
 - 1) If you choose to sin, the Father is displeased, may discipline, and even become angry with you.
 - 2) If with the right motives you choose to obey, the Father is pleased and considers your obedience as good and righteous.
