Lessons regarding God

1. He is always faithful to His promises and His relationships (29).
2. He has an all wise, unchanging plan for redemptive history (Eph. 1:11; 3:11).
3. His plan is not always obvious or easily traceable (33-34a).

Lessons regarding Israel and the Gentiles

1. God's plan includes the fullness or full number of redeemed for both Jews (12) and Gentiles (25).
2. God's plan includes Israel's unbelief and His rejection of them as a people (11).
3. God's plan includes the salvation of the nations during this age (11).
4. God's plan includes the future acceptance and salvation of Israel as a whole (15, 26).

Lessons regarding us individually

1. God's continuing relationship with Israel should affect our attitude and actions toward the Jews.
 - Pray for and seek the salvation of the Jewish people (9:3).
 - Reject all hatred and prejudice against the Jews—as a people and individuals (Jam. 2:10).
2. The way we live as Christians should make Christ and the gospel so attractive that it provokes the people around us to jealousy over our faith (11, 14).
3. The complexity of God's plan of redemption should cause us to trust God as he works out his plans for our own lives — even when we don't understand (8:28).
