Overview

This document is intended to provide an overview of the roles and responsibilities for each of the volunteer leadership positions within CSMFO. While it is intended to be comprehensive, the Bylaws and policy manual are the governing documents and should be referenced in the event of a discrepancy.

Terms

The new officers, Board members and committee appointees take office with the first day of the Annual Conference. Until that time, the prior year’s officers, Board members and committees are still active.

The League Policy Committee appointments take effect on January 1 and run concurrent with the calendar year.

Chapter chair terms vary by chapter. Consult your chapter leadership for more information.

GFOA representative appointments take effect upon appointment.
President

It is the primary responsibility of the CSMFO President to be the leader of and spokesperson for the organization. The CSMFO President should:

- Conduct him/herself at CSMFO functions and in their professional and personal life in a manner becoming of the CSMFO leadership.

- Be outwardly supportive of decisions made by the majority of the CSMFO Board of Directors, regardless of personal opinions.

- Participate in the annual survey evaluating CSMFO consultants.

- Chair all Board of Directors meetings.

- Chair all Executive Committee meetings.

- Review monthly financials; review and approve check runs.

- Host/emcee the Annual Conference at which the presidency begins.

- Submit a President’s Message to the CSMFO Office by the 15th of the month for the following month’s Magazine, beginning on January 15 for the February issue.

- Attend conferences as the representative of CSMFO. Complimentary registrations and hotel stays are provided for AGFOA, CMTA, OMFOA and WFOA. CSMFO will reimburse for travel, incidentals and any meals not provided for the president and a guest; as well as registration and hotel for GFOA:

  Oregon Municipal Finance Officers Association (OMFOA)
  Generally March and October

  Alaska Government Finance Officers Association (AGFOA)
  Generally April and November

  California Municipal Treasurers Association (CMTA)
  Generally April

  Government Finance Officers Association (GFOA)
  Generally May

  Washington Finance Officers Association (WFOA)
  Generally September
(President continued)

- It is customary to provide a small gift to the president of each association that provides CSMFO with complimentary registration and hotel accommodations. Typically these gifts are $50-100, and have in the past included items such as a wine and cheese basket or a donation to the organization’s scholarship fund. Expenses are recorded under the President’s Expense line in the budget.

- Coordinate, in conjunction with Executive Director, CSMFO reception at GFOA’s Annual Conference.

- Appoint Nominating Committee by October 1 annually. Nominating Committee should consist of:
  - President-Elect
  - President
  - Past President
  - One current Board member
  - One committee chair
  - Two chapter chairs
  - Two members at large (who are not current Board members)

- Participate in the Nominating Committee. Identify, contact and confirm nominees for Board Member North, Board Member South and President-Elect. Participate in conference call with Nominating Committee prior to November 1 to finalize slate.

- Submit report on goals to the CSMFO Office for the Annual Report by January 15.

- Discuss with the President-Elect what, if any, gifts or tokens of appreciation to present to staff, etc. at the conference.
President-Elect

It is the role of the CSMFO President-Elect to spend the year in this position learning from the President and training to be the leader of and spokesperson for the organization in the following year. The CSMFO President-Elect should:

- Conduct him/herself at CSMFO functions and in their professional and personal life in a manner becoming of the CSMFO leadership.
- Be outwardly supportive of decisions made by the majority of the CSMFO Board of Directors, regardless of personal opinions.
- Participate in the annual survey evaluating CSMFO consultants.
- Attend all Board of Directors meetings.
- Attend all Executive Committee meetings. Chair meetings in the President’s absence.
- Review monthly financials; review and approve check runs.
- Invite members to the next conference during the final day Annual Conference.
- Chair the Annual Conference Host Committee for the following year’s conference. The finance director of the host city should be your first consideration for a Co-Chair. Typically the committee consists of 10-12 CSMFO members that are geographically nearby, and should include both government and commercial members for a broad overall perspective. Annual Conference Host Committee meetings should begin late March/early April, and all Committee/Annual Conference activities should be coordinated through the Meeting Coordinator.
- Determine dates and location for next year’s Strategic Planning Session; coordinate through the Executive Director.
- Identify Facilitator for this year’s Planning Session, and coordinate the content/structure of the day therewith. No current contracts exist for this service.
- Prepare draft operational budget for next year in collaboration with Executive Director.
- Choose team-building activity and dinner venue for this year’s Planning Session; coordinate with Executive Director.
Chair the Nominating Committee. Task Nominating Committee members with identifying, contacting and confirming nominees for Board Member North, Board Member South and President-Elect. Conduct conference call with Nominating Committee to finalize slate. Submit slate to Executive Director.

Determine recipient(s) (if any) for the Distinguished Service Award. Plaque must be ordered within four (4) weeks of the conference.

Work with Executive Director to finalize verbiage for President’s plaque, to be awarded at the conference.

The President-Elect appoints the League Policy Committee representatives from CSMFO.

The President-Elect appoints all chair, vice chair, senior advisor and Board liaison positions for all standing committees for the following year. Contact existing committee leadership for ideas/consultation regarding next year’s appointees; start contacting potential appointees.

Confirm GFOA representatives for another year of service; find replacement representatives as necessary.

Discuss with the President what, if any, gifts or tokens of appreciation to present to staff, etc. at the conference.

Submit report on goals to the CSMFO Office for the Annual Report by January 15.
Past President

It is the role of the CSMFO Past President to serve as a mentor and advisor to the President and President-Elect. The CSMFO Past President should:

- Conduct him/herself at CSMFO functions and in their professional and personal lives in a manner becoming of the CSMFO leadership.

- Be outwardly supportive of decisions made by the majority of the CSMFO Board of Directors, regardless of personal opinions.

- Participate in the annual survey evaluating CSMFO consultants.

- Attend all Board of Directors meetings. Chair meetings in the President’s absence.

- Attend all Executive Committee meetings.

- Review monthly financials; review and approve check runs.

- Serve as Chapter Chair Liaison. Conduct at least two (2) conference calls annually, inviting all chapter chairs to attend. Purpose of calls is to check in with each chapter, ensure everyone is meeting (at least once annually; monthly to every-other-month is preferable), exchange ideas for speakers and resources, etc. If a chapter is without a chair or vice chair, it is the responsibility of the Chapter Chair Liaison to find a candidate to fill the position. Ensure each chapter holds an election annually for the position of Chair. If no election is held, the Past President may appoint a Chair. Provide all new and existing chapter chairs with support.

- Maintain Chapter Chair Tool Box. Conduct annual review of Tool Box with Chapter Chairs to ensure it remains up to date.

- Work with CSMFO staff and a small committee of his/her choosing to identify and recommend to the Board of Directors annual conference host venues for upcoming conferences.

  - Work with Meeting Coordinator to schedule site visits to potential venues in order to assess their potential as a future host for the CSMFO Annual Conference. Priority should be given to venues with ample space for a vendor hall.

  - Present recommendation on conference sites for Board approval.

- Participate in the Nominating Committee. Identify, contact and confirm nominees for Board Member North, Board Member South and President-Elect. Participate in conference call with Nominating Committee prior to November 1 to finalize slate.

- Submit report on goals to the CSMFO Office for the Annual Report by January 15.
