

DOB

ON THE MOVE

Executive, Management and Board Changes in Canada's Oil & Gas Market

Welcome to the August 2022 edition of the DOB's On The Move newsletter. Each month, we highlight recent executive, management and board changes. To send your HR move directly to us, for inclusion in the next newsletter, please email your submission to editor@dailyoilbulletin.com.

Top moves announced in August 2022

Dawn Farrell was appointed president and chief executive officer, and member of the board of directors, of Trans Mountain Corporation. The appointment was effective Aug. 15, 2022. Farrell brings over 35 years of experience in the energy business, having held various senior level positions, including most recently president and CEO of TransAlta Corporation. Moreover, Farrell brings a depth of expertise and significant international business presence to Trans Mountain, says the company.

Chris Severson-Baker was named executive director of the Pembina Institute, succeeding Linda Coady. Severson-Baker served most recently as senior director of the Industrial Decarbonization Group. He left Pembina in 2016 to work with the Alberta Energy Regulator's (AER) environmental sciences group before returning to the Pembina Institute in 2020.

Cameron Goldade was named chief financial officer of Pembina Pipeline Corporation. This appointment concludes the previously announced executive search process undertaken by the company. Goldade was appointed the company's interim CFO in November 2021 and previously served as vice-president of capital markets.

Executive and management changes

- Ryan Hummer was appointed to the role of chief executive officer at NCS Multistage Holdings, Inc., at which time he will also join the board as a Class II director with a term to expire at the 2025 annual meeting of stockholders. Hummer currently serves as chief financial officer and treasurer and his successor will be the subject of a future announcement as the company is undergoing a search of internal and external candidates. NCS announced that Robert Nipper, the company's founder, current chief executive officer and member of the board of directors, plans to retire, and has tendered his resignation from his position as CEO, effective Nov. 1, 2022. Nipper will remain on the board following his retirement.
- Shayne Neigum was appointed to the role of chief operating officer and head of exploration of Royal Helium Ltd. Neigum has worked closely with Stephen Halabura in identifying and acquiring Royal's key helium land positions and prospects since 2017 and has executed the drilling and completion operations on all of Royal's wells to date. Halabura will be stepping down from his position as the company's VP exploration, handing the reins to Neigum.
- Tavis Carlson was named vice-president of finance at Peyto Exploration & Development Corp. Carlson was previously the chief financial officer, vice-president finance and corporate secretary with Altura Energy Inc. The company said he will join current controller Crissy Rafoss and chief financial officer Kathy Turgeon to further strengthen Peyto's finance team.
- Ivan J. Condic was promoted to the role of VP finance and CFO at NuVista Energy Ltd., effective Jan. 1, 2023. This follows Ross Andreachuk's decision to retire effective Dec. 31, 2022, after 16 years with NuVista. Condic has been controller since 2014 and has worked closely with Andreachuk and the executive team and the board throughout the period to ensure his readiness as part of the company's ongoing executive and staff succession planning process. Prior to NuVista, Condic began his career as a staff accountant at KPMG and then has held a variety of roles including controller and CFO at smaller companies in the industry.
- Alana K. Knowles was appointed to the role of vice-president and controller at Chevron Corporation, effective March 1, 2023. Knowles will succeed David A. Inchausti, who will resign from that position effective Feb. 28, 2023, and is expected to retire from the company in April 2023, after 35 years of service. Knowles will lead Chevron's accounting policy and external reporting, financial reporting and analysis, internal controls and digital finance organizations. Currently vice-president – finance, downstream and chemicals and midstream, Knowles began her career with Chevron in 1988, supporting North America Upstream in an accounting and finance capacity.

Board changes

- Brad Paterson resigned from Wavefront Technology Solutions Inc. as both a member of the board of directors and as an officer of the company and its subsidiary, effectively immediately. Paterson will remain working with the company under a contractual arrangement.
- Henry Sykes will be appointed board chair at Pembina Pipeline Corporation effective Jan. 1, 2023. This is part of the company's ongoing board succession planning. Sykes replaces Randall Findlay, who intends to retire prior to the next annual meeting of shareholders and will not stand for re-election.
- Calvin Jacober was appointed to the board of directors for Pine Cliff Energy Ltd. Jacober was most recently the vice-chair Canada for PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP (PwC) until his retirement earlier this year. Before this, he was both the managing partner and the assurance leader for PwC's Calgary office, responsible for management of all aspects of PwC's Calgary office, including promoting PwC's brand in the market across all lines of services and developing a culture of collaboration while promoting core values of diversity and inclusion.
- Jenna Kaye was appointed to the Journey Energy

Inc. board of directors. Kaye is the founder and CEO of Odyssey Trust Company, one of the largest trust and transfer agents in North America, with offices and co-agents across Canada and the U.S. She is also the co-founder and chair of Tetra Trust, Canada's first regulated crypto custodian, co-founder of Axis

Connects, a Calgary-based non-profit organization committed to increasing diversity on boards and in the c-suite, and a principal of Icebook Investments, a family run office that's focused on early-stage businesses across a wide range of industries including renewable energy, real estate and fertility.

Related Content

Detect, identify, and address fugitive emissions in the field

Register today

Carbon Capture, Utilization and Storage (CCUS) essentials for energy leaders

November 2, 2022

Save with early bird pricing LIVE COURSE

CANADA'S MOST RELIABLE DAILY RIG DATA

Identify business opportunities.
Analyze competition.
Gain market share.

 Rig Locator . ca

Take a Free Trial Today!

SAVE 25% WITH OUR 3-COURSE BUNDLE

Measuring and reporting emissions package

Register here

 