

THE PULSE OF THE AMERICAN CONSUMER

CURRENT EVENTS

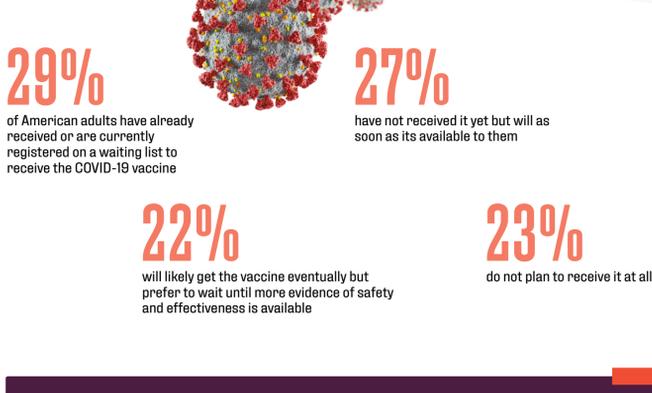

How closely have you followed these news events of the PAST WEEK?

How concerned are you currently about these issues?

COVID-19 & THE VACCINE

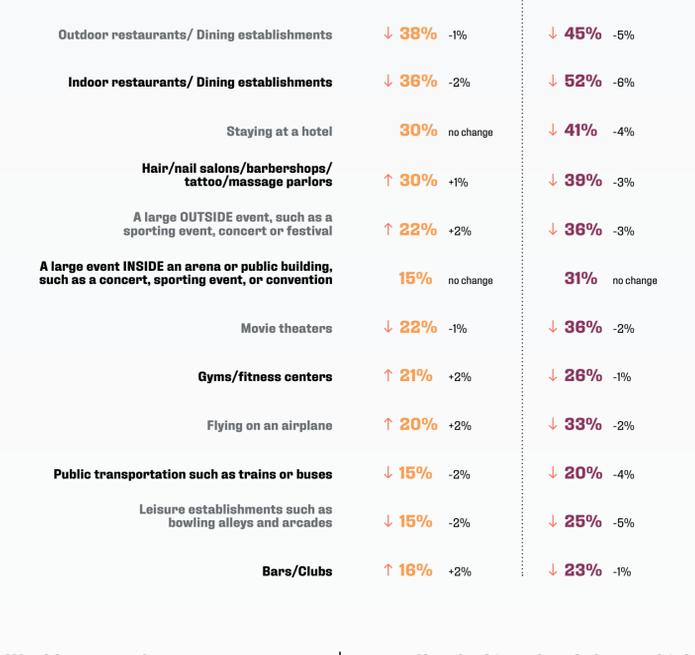

Some medical experts are now recommending that people consider double-masking to help slow the spread of COVID-19.

CONSUMER CONFIDENCE/ ECONOMIC OUTLOOK

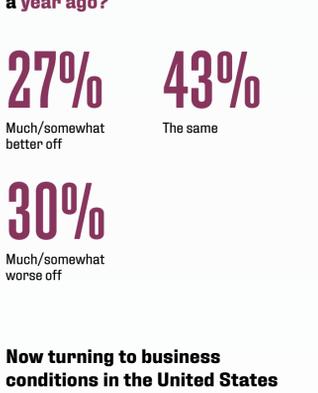

Recent reports indicate it will likely be later in the summer or earlier in the fall before most Americans will have access to the COVID-19 vaccine. Knowing this, whether you actually use them or not, which of these types of places/services would you be willing to go to or use now?

Now, thinking ahead for when the COVID pandemic has been stabilized, which of these types of places/services do you anticipate going to or using?

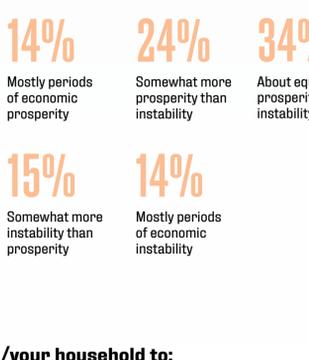

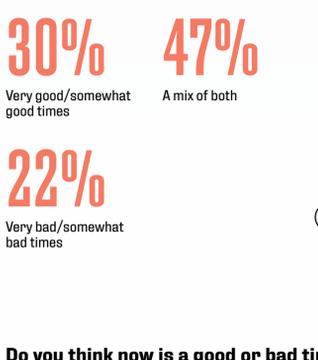

Would you say that you (and your household) are better off or worse off financially than you were a year ago?

Now looking ahead-do you think that a year from now you (and your household) will be better off financially, worse off, or about the same as now?

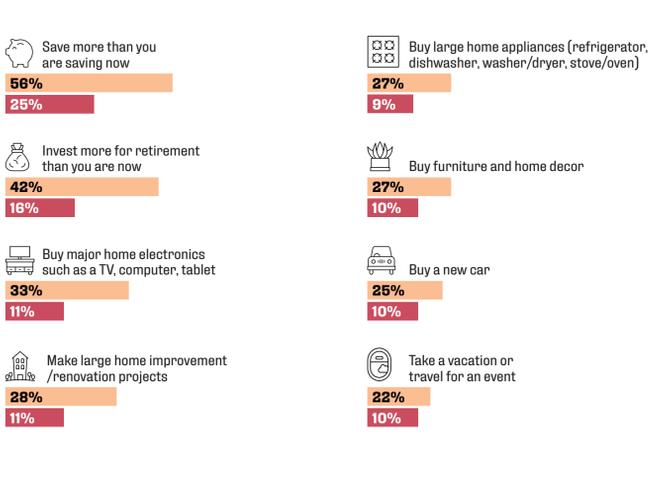

Now turning to business conditions in the United States as a whole - do you think that during the next twelve months we'll have good times financially, or bad times?

Looking ahead, which would you say is the most likely economic scenario for the United States during the next five years or so?

Do you think now is a good or bad time for you/your household to:
