City of Euclid Awarded Two EPA Shoreline Cities Grants By EPA

EPA Region 5 Administrator Susan Hedman, Congresswoman Marcia L. Fudge, Euclid City Council President Kirsten Holzheimer Gail, and Fuclid Mayor Rill Cervenik

by Marcia Fudge

On June 6, the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) awarded the city of Euclid two Great Lakes Restoration Initiative (GLRI) Shoreline Cities grants to improve Lake Erie water quality. I was proud to join representatives from Northern Ohio communities and the EPA on this day to recognize the city of Euclid for their efforts.

Totaling $174,206, the grants will fund Euclid projects to stop untreated storm water run-off into Lake Erie. Euclid is one of only a few midsize cities to receive two green infrastructure grants this year. Northern Ohio cities of Mentor and Sandusky were also awarded grants.

More specifically, the grants will be used to construct rain gardens and bioswales in Sims Park as well as bioretention ponds and porous concrete in Euclid's municipal parking lot. Together, these projects will prevent 603,000 gallons of untreated storm water run-off from entering Lake Erie each year.

The GLRI was created by President Barack Obama to protect the largest fresh water system in the world. Last year the EPA awarded GLRI funding to shoreline cities for the specific purpose of improving local lake water quality. This year, the EPA has once again used Shoreline Cities grant funding to protect lakes against flooding.

I thank the EPA for recognizing Euclid's leadership and for believing in the potential of smaller cities to make big changes. Eleven million people depend on the Great Lakes for clean drinking water each year. What happens in one part of Lake Erie affects everyone, making initiatives to protect the health of our lake deeply important.

All shoreline cities share the responsibility to take care of our natural resource for future generations. Congratulations to the city of Euclid and all other Northern Ohio cities who received a grant. Our great lakes are a national treasure, and preservation is of the upmost importance.

Euclid Joint Veterans' Council Awards Memorial Day Parade Trophies

by Ellen Ivory

Our Memorial Day Parade, which is held in May, is a proud tradition in the City of Euclid. Each year, many entities gather together to plan, organize and coordinate this event and to celebrate our veterans and active military personnel.

On behalf of the parade judges - D. Fay Miller, Brian Moore, and myself - we would like to extend our heartfelt thank you to our veterans, the Euclid Joint Veterans Council, Mayor Bill Cervenik and members of his Administration and staff, members of Euclid Safety Forces, various community groups, businesses and churches and the throngs of guests who scheduled time out of their day to view the parade.

We would like to applaud everyone who participated and would especially like to recognize the following units who will be receiving trophies:

- Navy Jr. ROTC, JNROTC Drill Team (Entire Unit)
- Euclid High School Marching Band

- The Irish American Club East Side (Entire Unit)
- Cleveland Style Polka Hall of Fame
- Euclid Fire Department
- Euclid Police DepartmentEuclid Pet Pals
- Shore Cultural Centre
- Euclid HospitalScouts, #161

This year a number of new entities marched and showcased their organizations. We encourage and welcome other groups to take the opportunity to become involved in 2016. Why not join in the celebration of our Veterans, our freedoms, and the City of Euclid? Let's unite and show our pride as we celebrate the honor of living in the land of the free and the home of the brave.

Summer is such a wonderful time of the year. Who doesn't love warm weather, colorful flowers, fresh fruit, chats with our neighbors, and opportuni-

In Euclid, we have several ways for you to enjoy the fun, beauty and peacefulness of summer. This month you have an opportunity to walk through some of the most beautifully, well landscaped homes in

will be held on Friday, July 17th from 6pm - 11pm and Saturday and Sunday, July 18th & 19th from 1pm - 6pm. There are sixteen locations on the self-guided tour, all unique with a variety of designs and features. Tickets are $8 and can be purchased at Euclid City Hall, Lakeshore Coffee House and Briardale Golf Course. The Pond and Garden Tour is presented by the Euclid Shade Tree Commission. For more information go to www.cityofeuclid.com or call 216-731-

Another "must do" this summer is to take a walk along the paths through Euclid Creek Reservation. With its wooded hillsides that run the length of the reservation, it is a tranquil, yet often forgotten park in Euclid. I personally love the sites and sounds of Lake Erie. Whether boating, fishing or just taking in its splendor, the Lake can be so beautiful and mesmerizing. The Sims Park Fishing Pier and park benches offer front row seats to the nightly sunsets.

The season comes and goes quickly. Take time to relax and enjoy the simple beauty of nature

Donut Burgers Served at Lodge 604 Utopians Picnic

by Gerri Trebe

Join Lodge 604 Utopians on Sunday, August 9 at SNPJ Recreation Farm in Kirtland, OH for a fun-filled day and a chance to try a popular item served at the Florida State Fair, attested to by members Rudy and Charlotte Perdan. Aside from our usual bill of fare, roast beef and sausage dinners, we will be serving hamburgers and cheeseburgers on a krofe (donut)! Two Krispy Kreme donuts were used in Florida, so we decided to try our take using a krofe. There will be a limited quantity so as they say, first come, first served. We will also have regular buns for those not wishing to walk on the wild side! The usual sandwiches, sauerkraut, Slove-nian potatoes, salad and krofe will be served throughout the afternoon. Dinners are $9.00 which does not include the gate.

Speaking of the gate, Utopians will once again offer $2.00 off your admission if you bring a non-perishable food item or monetary donation to the Cleveland Food Bank. Thanks to your generosity last year, 82 pounds of food was collected and donated. What a worthwhile cause.

From 3:00 to 7:00 p.m., music will be provided by the Ron Likovic Band. We all know what beautiful music he makes with those nimble fingers of his. Accompanying Ron is son, RJ Likovic on the drums, a recent member of the lodge. Grab your dancing shoes—and your favorite dancing partner and head on out for a delightful afternoon. Or just sit and listen to the music, tap your feet and socialize with your friends. For more information, please feel free to contact Gerri Trebets at 440-951-9611.

Thanks to our ambitious group of workers, several cosmetic changes are being made to the grounds, or will be shortly underway in order to make this a place where you can enjoy a carefree, relaxing afternoon. Don't forget to support all the other lodges and organizations—we are all working toward one common good!!! A great line up of entertainment is in store for 2015.

Neighborhood Leadership Development Program Seeks 2015 Applicants

by Sandra Kluk

Are you a passionate, committed Clevelander dedicated to taking an active role in improving your community? Could you use help enhancing your leadership skills?

The Neighborhood Leadership Development Program is a free community engagement training program for residents of Cleveland, and its inner ring suburbs, who are working on projects within the City of Cleveland.

NLDP was established in 2006 by the Jack, Joseph and Morton Mandel Foundation and is directed by former Cleveland mayor, Michael White.

Each year 20 committed individuals are chosen for the program. NLDP participants and graduates are from diverse backgrounds and range in age from their 20's to 60's. Their interests and pursuits are similarly diverse. NLDP currently has 143 graduates who are still working to improve life in their communities

Stephanie Pope

NLDP graduates build and maintain community gardens and work in community development organizations; they support homeowners through financial literacy programs, teach computer skills to residents and build playgrounds for children. NLDP graduates are community activists, they provide services to people in need; work with the homeless and those facing re-entry. They enrich their communities through arts and culture and advocate for housing rights. Stephanie Pope and KC Petraitis are two such NLDP graduates. Stephanie is on the boards of Northeast Shores Development Corporation and the Northeast Cleveland Little League. Her issue is voting and voting rights and youth

In 2013 she organized a group of women, called "Cleveland Vote Like a Girl", to educate themselves on voting and voting rights. Empowered by this, they learned about the ballot issues and then went as a group to vote. Their first meeting brought together a number of community groups to partner with the project. They went out on National Voter Registration Day to register voters and will be doing it again this year.

Pope has also created a leadership development program for girls' ages 10 to 17 called "The Destiny Project. Beginning June 5, 2015 the group will meet at the Salvation Army every Friday. The purpose for this initiative is to empower inner city youth to understand who they are, who they want to become and the path they need to take to achieve a life of success and purpose.

Pope says that NLDP "strengthened her leadership skills and that she was able to carry those skills into all her other projects and responsibilities." She said she learned to "create things that are sustainable so that if she goes the project will still go on."

Kestutis (KC) Petraitis also feels that NLDP gave him an understanding of "people tools and skills". KC is from Collinwood and currently works at the Cuyahoga Land Bank where he assists in the productive reuse of vacant and abandoned properties. KC remains involved with Northeast Shores Development Corporation and various Lithuanian-American groups in the neigh-

Improving, and giving back to, the community is very important to him, and how better to do that than by getting involved with its young future leaders.

KC is a soccer coach at Villa Angela/St. Joseph. Last year, he partnered with the Salvation Army to start a soccer program for about 25 children ages 10 to 12. The event grew as a launching point for more soccer activities. This spring KC coached a travel soccer program with Royal Academy Soccer. The team is comprised of Cleveland residents that compete against suburban communities in Northeast Ohio with an emphasis on sportsmanship, hard work, and

"NLDP taught me the power of networking with other people and organizations, like our partnership with the Salvation Army and Royal Academy Soccer," said Petraitis. "It helped me to see other community assets that could work together." He continued, "I automatically know that when I meet someone else who has gone through the NLDP program that I'm dealing with a committed community member and I know they care. That's a great feeling.'

Practitioners in the areas of nonprofit management, marketing, program planning, fundraising and organizational leadership are NLDP presenters and facilitators.

Every NLDP participant and NLDP graduate has ongoing access to the services of a Program Coach. NLDP coaches give advice and support tailored to the needs of the par-

"Children often have special needs when coping with the death of a loved one, and may process their grief far differently than adults," explained Dials, a grief counselor at Hospice of the Western Reserve's Elisabeth Severance Prentiss Bereavement Center. "Children who lose a parent or close family member may have difficulty sleeping, worrisome thoughts, depression or anger issues. The camp setting provides an opportunity for them to express their feelings, learn ways to cope, remember their special person who died, and meet others in their same age group who have also experienced loss.'

Fieldstone Farm is recognized as one of the largest state-of-the-art therapeutic riding centers in North America. Founded in 1978, the organization is breaking new ground in the field of equine therapy and changing many lives in the community. Experts at both organizations concur that counseling children with grief through the gentle and nurturing feedback of therapy horses in a tranquil environment has proven to have a healing effect.

buzz in her hometown of Euclid. She has recently opened an art studio in a classroom at Shore Cultural Centre that offers people of all ages to come and explore their creativity through all types of art. Sheehan shares, "I wanted to create a welcoming environment where anyone can go to discover ways of expressing their creativity, learn something new, and enjoy making something unique." Sheehan received a B.F.A in art education from Ohio University in 2008 and has been teaching at the high school and elementary levels since. She has been pottery at Shore Cultural Centre to adults since 2011 and has spent the last four years as the art teacher at Our Lady of the Lake School in Euclid. She has recently moved out of the traditional classroom to focus on her new business at Shore in an effort to make the arts more accessible to the community. "Through implementation of my private after school art class called CANVAS at Our Lady of the Lake School, I realized the interest for deeper arts education in the community and wanted to offer more options for all ages," says Sheehan. "CANVAS was a wonderful experience for our daughter. She learned new techniques and was able to apply her skills in a variety of projects. Most of all, she developed confidence. ## The Bluestone Elementary School Running Club

The Bluestone Running Club was an after school club developed by Leah Kasmenn for 5th-grade girls. The club met twice a week and each session began with a group run. It was followed by various physical activities, such as push-ups, ab work, and/or agility skill work. The Running Club session ended with some type of fun relay and/or game and a group snack. Team building, good sportsmanship, respect, and building relationships with one another were important skills that were integrated into the club.

Leah Kasmenn was joined by two other Bluestone teachers, Casey Feran and Alyssa Napolitano. Besides promoting physical activity, which is so important to do with our youth, Ms. Kasmenn impacted these young girls lives with her positive attitude and motivational words. Bluestone Elementary School is extremely lucky to have such a caring and hard working teacher!

New Day Academy Taking Students from Kindergarten to Bachelors Degree

Baldwin Wallace University Class of 2015

by Terrance Walton New Day Academy a Kindergarten through 12th grade college prep school had an exciting past two months. May and June were exciting months for students and parents of New Day Academy, as many proud parents witnessed their children graduate from Kindergarten, eighth grade, high school, and even college. Each of these milestone events give the teachers and staff of New Day Academy the motivation and affirmation necessary to continue on in a career that on a day to day basis can become quite challenging. Seeing the smiles on the faces of the children as they receive their degree, diploma, or certificate, and the flashes of cameras from proud parents and families, as their children and loved ones cross the stage, make it all worth it.

This year was extra special as New Day Academy saw its first College graduate. Ashley Welch graduated from New Day Academy in 2011 and went on to further her education at Baldwin Wallace University, were this past May she completed all the requirements necessary to receive a bachelor's degree in criminal Justice. Ashley graduated in four years, which in of itself is an accomplishment, as most students take at least five years to complete bachelors. What's more amazing is that Ashley made it despite all the odds being stacked against her. Before going to Baldwin Wallace, Ashley hadn't ever really been away from Cliffview Rd., for any extended amount of time, so being on the campus of BW seemed like a world away from home and what she was used to, so many times she felt like she was out of place and should go home. We at New Day are so glad she persevered and stayed. Ashley attributes her success, "to a team of teachers at New Day Academy that instilled the importance of education, and always motivated her in the classroom and beyond."

Although Ashley was the first New Day Academy graduate, she will not be the last as the school expects many more college graduates to come, as the school begins to see its initial graduating classes begin to complete four to five years of college. New Day Academy was established in 2004 and had its first high school graduation in 2010. The expectation for college graduates is bright, with students like the following from the class of 2015: T'ara Adams the class Valedictorian and Julai Matthews the class Salutatorian. T'ara who received a total of $123,100 in scholarship will be furthering her education at the University of Akron. Julai Mathews who received a total of $96,000 in scholarship offers will be attending Gannon University in Erie, Pennsylvania. ## The "Big Night" Wine Tasting Event at Mama Catena Ristorante

Sam & Hope with the Timpano

Zuppa di Pesce

by Rina Catena

Mama Catena Ristorante re-enacted the classic scene from the movie "Big Night" a Stanley Tucci's cinematic masterpiece.

The 'Big Night" is a story about two immigrant brothers from Abruzzi, Italy.

On the New Jersey Shore in the 1950s, the immigrant brothers owned and operated a restaurant. The one brother, Primo played by Tony Shalhoub, is a brilliant, perfectionist chef who chafes under their few customers' expectations of "Americanized" Italian food. Their uncle's offer for them to return to Rome to help with his restaurant is growing in appeal to Primo. The younger brother, Secondo played by Stanly Tucci, is the restaurant manager, a man enamored with the possibilities presented by their new endeavor and life in America. Despite Secondo's efforts and Primo's magnificent food, their restaurant was suffering financially.

Secondo's struggles as a businessman renders him unable to commit to his girlfriend Phyllis (Minnie Driver), and it didn't help matters any as he was having an affair with Gabriella (Isabella Rossellini), the wife of a competitor whose restaurant is located ers and whose restaurant was doing really well! Gabriella's husband's (Ian Holm) "Pascal's", restaurant was very successful despite (or perhaps due to) the mediocre, uninspired food served there. Desperate to keep his restaurant afloat, Secondo asks Pascal for a loan. Instead, Pascal, persuades Secondo, to invite the very popular Italian-American singer Louis Prima to dine at the restaurant, persuading Secondo that the celebrity jazz singer's patronage will revitalize the brothers' business.

Primo and Secondo plunge themselves into preparation for this "big night" by putting everything they have on food and inviting people (including a newspaper reporter) to join them in a magnificent feast centered around a timpano (a form of timballo, a complicated baked pasta dish baked in drum-like shaped container). The brothers pour their hearts into every dish, lavishing care and great expertise on the Rigatoni, meat sauce, meat balls, mozzarella, pecorino romano, peas, prosciutto, soprezzata then covered with dough, baked then sliced like a piece of pie and served on a bed of meat sauce. Heavenly, paired with two red wines La Maialina, Chianti Classico Riserva &

Grattamacco, Toscano Rosso. Fifth Course: Tantalizing Tiramisu (pick me up) served with a fresh raspberry sauce paired with a shot of Velenosi, Visciole.

All in all it was an amazing wine tasting event with foods and wines never served in Northern Ohio, but strategically re-enacted right here in Euclid by Mama Catena Ristorante! by Laureen Deveney Euclid Senior, Tom Evert, is going "Going for the Gold!" A group of local residents are supporting him in his efforts to be represented as "our local swimmer" who qualified to be in the National Senior Olympic Games. These are to be held this summer in Bloomington/Minneapolis/St. Paul, Minnesota on July 3-16th, 2015.

Team Evert

Today Tom has been training right here in good old Euclid at the various recreation pools. Swim instructor, Laureen Deveney, was personally invited to be his swim coach. Both have benefited. They profit by all who come into swim. Sometimes by simply introducing their goal to others. Take for example, Barb Cvelbar, who swims routinely to exercise her new knee. She is constantly giving them her moral support. She was enlisted to be the assistant coach for "Team Evert". And for those of you who were fortunate enough to witness them, it was not a super hero in front of the Euclid Library group, but "Team Evert" doing their own thing. It was in fact, Barb who had been enlisted to hold the banner during the 2015 Memorial Day Parade. At other times the various lifeguards chipped in, CeCe Kochavar and Valerie Mignona, have offered additional training ideas, since they both are athletes in additional sports, soccer and ice skating respectively. Ms. Deveney's motto is "There are a hundred ways to skin a cat." Mostly she spies on other champion swimmers, watching their turns or dives, then integrating what seems to be the most proficient (thank you Mrs. Beth Darcy for that nice flip turn) to Tom was born, raised, and still resides in Euclid, Ohio as a resident. Although, he did live outside this city for twelve years while he established himself as a world class dance performer. Many have you might recognize or have seen Mr. Evert' name in the dance world. He is Director for Dancevert. Occasionally, he works out of the Shore Cultural Arts Center where he often times performs or gives classes.

While it is Evert's desire is to win all his events: the men's 100 yard Individual Medley, the 50 yard Freestyle; he truly hopes to bring home the 50 yard Butterfly most. Why? Because "it seems so dance like." During the most recent Columbus regionals, he brought home several golds and improvement over last year's bronzes.
