Do not fret because of those who are evil or be envious of those who do wrong.
For like the grass they will soon wither. Like green plants they will soon die away.
Trust in the Lord and do good! Commit your way to the Lord!
We take delight in the Lord. We wait patiently for the Lord!
The wicked draw the sword and bend the bow to bring down the poor and needy.
We hope in the Lord. We keep his way.
Help us, Lord, to refrain from anger and turn from wrath; for we know that the power of the wicked will be broken.
He loves the just and will not forsake his faithful ones!
Consider the blameless, observe the upright. A future awaits those who seek peace
Praise to God who is our stronghold in times of trouble.

OPENING PRAYERJeremiah

God of all people, we thank you for the legacy of Methodism, for John Wesley who felt a warming in his heart, a calling to be your servant and led others to be faithful and active disciples in a world that was struggling. We ask you this morning, Lord, to guide us as Methodists in today’s world. May we recognize your wisdom through Wesley’s teachings and his Three Simple Rules. May we, too, be active disciples in a hurting world. Surround those who are struggling with loving grace and may we be your hands and loving arms where help is needed. In the name of Jesus, we pray. Amen.

SCRIPTUREMicah 6:8 (NIV)Jeremiah

MORNING PRAYER/THE LORD’S PRAYERJeremiah

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.
