We remember with love, O God...

The countless saints of history who have blazed a trail of courage.

We remember with humility, O God...

The tender touch of loved ones, the healing words of comforters.

We remember with compassion, O God...

The gentle strength of the elderly, loyal friends, the sacrifice of parents.

We remember with humility, O God...

The love of Jesus, the reminder of his words, the sharing of his suffering, death, and the glory of his resurrection.

We remember with respect all the saints of God who have shown us the Lord and released God’s blessings in our lives and our church.

Let us joyfully worship surrounded by this great cloud of witnesses!

OPENING PRAYER Jeremiah
Lord, we praise You today for always being at work in our lives and our world. Open our minds and hearts this day so our limited perspectives may shift to see the miracles happening all around us. We pray expectantly this morning, with an attitude of gratitude, believing You are with us and that You will do great things among us and through us. Starting now, may we become active participants in your miracles. You are on the move, doing a new thing, and we believe the best is yet to come. In the name of Jesus we pray assuredly. Amen.

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.
