SML Technology Education

All students will be prepared and motivated to meet the challenges of a dynamic global society in which they collaborate, think critically, and create through universal access to people, information and ideas.

21st Century Learning is lifelong learning, with technology. Students develop the capacity to locate, consume, analyze, and evaluate information; then to create knowledge. To be literate in the 21st century is no longer simply having the ability to read and write; rather, it must also include technological fluency and dispositional attributes such as creativity, teamwork, systems thinking, responsibility, self-assessment, and inquiry. We should expect students not only to master these skills but also to apply and demonstrate them through authentic and engaging activities and assessments.

8 Criteria for Success

1. Technology is seamlessly embedded into the fabric of the student learning experience.
2. All educators will use 21st century skills and knowledge to effectively embed educational technology as necessary to enable students to achieve.
3. SML will improve and maintain a user-focused technology infrastructure that is reliable, supported, and relevant to today.
4. All students and staff will have access to the tools of technology and information for learning.
5. Professional Development will be focused towards improving the learning process and providing relevance to the student's world.
6. Standards will exist to enable consistency in the provisioning of the educational process and facilities.
7. Innovative use of technology will be encouraged and supported.
8. Use of technology will be personalized to the extent possible, in order to address different learning styles/needs and rates of learning.

SML Electronic Community

SML has implemented a series of electronic services that are a comprehensive communications and information system. This system is available to all students, staff, and families of the SML community. At the beginning of the year, students should ensure they can access each of the following systems: their SML Network account, email, and Headmaster.

Internet Access at School

Access to the Internet is available through iPads or computers at any time of the day, via the SML wireless network. The SML network is password protected so that access is limited to school-provided devices. The password is preset; if a student loses access, try restarting the iPad and attempt to connect again. If asked for the password, please see a teacher or administrator.

Content Filtering and Monitoring

St. Mark Lutheran will monitor the online activities of minors and operate a technology protection measure (“filtering/blocking device”) on the network and/or all computers with Internet access, as required by law. The filtering/blocking device will be used to protect against access to visual depictions that are obscene, harmful to minors, as required by law. Because the SML technology is a shared resource, the filtering/blocking device will apply to all devices with Internet access. Filtering/Blocking devices are not foolproof, and SML cannot guarantee that users will never be able to access offensive materials using SML’s equipment. Evasion or disabling, or attempting to evade or disable, a filtering/blocking device installed by the SML is prohibited.

The Director of Technology or the Network administrator may disable the SML’s filtering/blocking device to enable an adult user access for bona fide research or for other lawful purposes. In making decisions to disable the filtering/blocking device, the administrator shall consider whether the use will serve a legitimate educational purpose or otherwise benefit SML.
