WORKING WITH INTEGRITY – DATA/INFO TO SUPPORT RESEARCH

Academic integrity reflects the high expectations of all scholars to maintain integrity in their research and in their writing at all times. A report of the AUT Academic Quality Office (2014) stated:

Academic integrity refers to intellectual honesty in academic work or scholarship. It involves honesty in the execution of academic work, in the sourcing and use of information, in the formulation of any answers, ideas or opinions. In particular it means acknowledging the contribution of others and taking responsibility for the originality of one’s own work. (p. 3)

As research students engaged in generating original knowledge, there are two important parts to the final sentence above: the contribution of others and the originality of one’s own work. Clarity and precision is demanded in both areas. But they also support each other: the accurate and comprehensive acknowledgement of the work of others means the extent of one’s own work is also made precisely clear.

Integrity applies to all aspects of the research and thesis writing journey. Working with integrity in the collection and analysis of research data includes: an ethical research practice; rigour in the collection, storage and management of data; and absolute honesty in the reporting of findings. (See for instance the Code of professional standards and ethics of the Royal Society of New Zealand: Te Apārangi (2017) and the Singapore Statement on Research Integrity (2010)).

Integrity when reviewing literature in a research field involves honest consideration of which sources to include/exclude, careful attention to not misconstrue the work of others, and technically correct referencing.

THE WRITING PROCESS – SPECIFIC WRITTEN PRODUCTS

There is a vast literature on writing a doctoral thesis, providing much valuable guidance and advice. The nature of the doctoral writing task involves both generating an original contribution to knowledge and producing a thesis of up to 100,000 words. Five insights which may assist you in your own writing.

Three rules of writing

Don Murray (1990) identified the three rules of writing:

- Lower your standards
- Be willing to write badly in order to write well
- Remember that a first draft is just a first draft

Murray confirmed that the first draft is never perfect, not even for experienced writers. So: Just write. Get ideas into their first rough form on the page that then gives you material to work with and refine.

How many drafts should I write?

Economist JK Galbraith found thinking tedious and writing hard. “In my own case,” he said, “there are days when the result is so bad that no fewer than five revisions are required. However, when I'm greatly inspired, only four revisions are needed” (Galbraith, 1978, para. 8).

When should I begin writing?

As soon as humanly possible. Galbraith recommended that one should go to the computer each morning “and stay there, regardless of the seeming result” (1978, para. 7).

Name your audience

Who (scholars in your field/professional colleagues) would you expect or like to read your work? Put their names at the beginning of everything that you write, or pin the names on the wall by your desk, so you write for a clearly defined audience (Brown, 1994) and consciously address real people.

Work with a writing buddy/partner

Link up with a friend, colleague or fellow student who is also doing a lot of writing. Meet regularly to review and discuss what you have written, read short uninterrupted sections of your writing to each other, and offer each other constructive feedback. Listen for your and your partner’s writing voice and original ideas, and really encourage and draw out that intellectual independence of thought.

ETHICS OVERVIEW

It is the policy of the University that all staff or student research and teaching sessions involving human subjects (with the exception of special cases mentioned under Section 6 ‘Exceptions to activities requiring AUTEC approval’ on the AUTEC website) must receive approval from AUTEC prior to commencement.

A flowchart on the ethics approval process is provided on the following page.

Comprehensive and up to date information about ethics approval processes is available online at http://www.aut.ac.nz/researchethics and all researchers are referred to this website as the source for forms and information. Also available on the website are contact details for the Auckland University of Technology Ethics Committee (AUTEC) Secretariat, agenda closing and meeting dates, forms and exemplars.
Do I need ethics approval?

- Will other people be participating in your research?
  - Yes: Does your research require review by a Health and Disability Ethics Committee?
    - Yes: Does your research involve the use, collection, or disclosure of Health information (as defined by the Health Information Privacy Code) or human tissue (as defined by the Human Tissue Act 2008)?
      - Yes: Does your research require review by a Health and Disability Ethics Committee?
        - Yes: Your research may be covered by a Class Research Project approval. Please contact ethics@aut.ac.nz for more advice.
        - No: You need to apply to AUTEC using an EA1 Form
      - No: Do you have approval from another ethics committee?
        - Yes: You need to apply to AUTEC using an EA1 Form
        - No: Does your research need approval by an ethics committee because the owners of the tissue bank or database require it, or because HRC funding applies?
          - Yes: You need to apply to AUTEC using an EA1 Form
          - No: Is your research part of an undergraduate class project?
            - Yes: You need to apply to AUTEC using an EA1 Form
            - No: Does your research meet the exception criteria in section 8 of AUTEC's Applying for Ethics Approval: Guidelines and Procedures?
              - Yes: You do not need to apply for ethics approval. If you wish further clarification please contact ethics@aut.ac.nz
              - No: Your research may be covered by a Class Research Project approval. Please contact ethics@aut.ac.nz for more advice.
ACCESSING SUPPORT

You have access to a wide range of student services and activities that help you make the most of university life. A range of the support services available can be found on the Student Digital Workspace (SDW):

https://autuni.sharepoint.com/sites/sdw/

A list of resources and facilities, as well as a list of useful contacts, can be found on the following pages. Here is a list of some of the support services that you may frequent on a regular basis:

Graduate Research School (GRS)

The GRS has overall responsibility to provide the following:

- Secretariat support for the University Postgraduate Board (UPB)
- Publication of the Postgraduate Handbook
- Monitoring and maintaining the central Postgraduate Study room (WU415 & WU416)
- Coordinating the Postgraduate Student Researcher Development Programme which includes workshops and social events for all postgraduate students enrolled at AUT.
- Monitoring Research degrees: admissions, progression, examination and graduation

  Note: For admissions, once the Offer of Place is accepted, fees paid and valid visa provided (international students only), the Postgraduate Coordinator will contact you regarding the enrolment start date and inform you once you have been enrolled into your papers. You will need to re-enrol and pay fees each year.
- Researcher Development, including supervision workshops

We also keep students informed of upcoming activities and events, both social and academic, via our communication mediums of Thesislink and PGExpress, the postgraduate e-newsletter.

Postgraduate Study Rooms

Central Postgraduate Study Rooms are available on each campus; the rooms are accessible 24/7 and are monitored by Security. There are also Postgraduate Rooms available in each Faculty which you will need to ask your faculty postgraduate administrator about. Central Postgraduate Study Room facilities may include lockers, photocopier and printer, microwave, break-out rooms, computer area, and kitchen area with tea and coffee. Students who use this facility are expected to clean up after themselves and share the available supplies.

Locations of central Postgraduate Study Rooms are as follows:

- City Campus (WU415 & WU416)
- North Campus (AL210)
- South Campus (MA206)
To obtain a swipe card access to use any of these facilities, you will need to complete a Student Key/Access Card form at that campus’ Security office.

Postgraduate Student Researcher Development Programme

The Graduate Research School coordinates a series of seminars and events across the University. The following activities and events are included in this Postgraduate Student Researcher Development Programme:

- Workshops
- Writers’ Retreats
- Postgraduate Mix & Mingles
- AUT Doctoral Scholarship Award Ceremonies
- Postgraduate Research Symposium
- AUT Three Minute Thesis (3MT) competition

The workshops included in the programme are primarily facilitated by University academics experienced in supervision and research. The workshops cover a range of topics relevant to postgraduate students including data analysis, ethics application procedures, getting published in academic journals, and planning and writing a thesis.

The workshops, activities and events as part of the Postgraduate Student Researcher Development Programme are listed on http://elab.aut.ac.nz. Workshop registrations are also done through the Elab website. To log in to Elab, use the username and password which you use to login to Student Web Mail, Blackboard and Unicentral. Once logged in, select ‘Events’ and browse upcoming workshops and events. Contact the Graduate Research School for more information:

Thesislink

Thesislink is AUT’s postgraduate research blog. Thesislink offers information, commentaries and suggestions as well as the opportunity to connect with other researchers and discover their stories and experiences.

We encourage you to access Thesislink, which is available from the following address: https://thesislink.aut.ac.nz/

Researcher Development Online Tool

Research students can access the researcher development online tool to search for workshops and seminars, and to access one-on-one advice and support to help you build research skills and progress in research.
The research portal is available through the following address: https://auti.aut.ac.nz/reporting/portal/_layouts/15/ReportServer/RSViewerPage.aspx?rv%3aRelativeReportUrl=/reporting/portal/Reports/Researcher%20Development%20Report.rdl&DefaultItemOpen=1

Research Students’ Peer Groups

A network of peer groups for research students is available at AUT. Each group is student-led, and offers opportunities to meet fellow postgrads, socialise, and talk about your research. The group details are as follows:

- CHINESE RESEARCH STUDENTS’ GROUP: Join a new research group for Masters and PhD students who speak either Mandarin or Cantonese. Email Zoe Au at hiuchingzoeee@gmail.com for more information.

- SPRINZ JOURNAL CLUB: Postgraduate students from SPRINZ are welcome to join our discussions as we read and assess journal articles on sport & performance research. Contact Josh McGeown at josh.mcgeown@aut.ac.nz or Casey Watkins at cwatkins025@gmail.com.

- ACTION RESEARCH CONNECTIONS: Join this Akoranga-based staff & student group to connect with new and experienced action researchers. Contact Katharine Hoskyn at katharine.hoskyn@aut.ac.nz.

- RESEARCHERS’ NETWORKING CLUB: Expand your network, identify potential collaborators, and talk about your research! Contact Arif Syed on smarif@aut.ac.nz.

- QUALITATIVE METHODOLOGY RESEARCH GROUP: All Masters and doctoral students working with qualitative methods are invited to share ideas and identify avenues for further learning. Contact Ray Jauny at rjauny@hotmail.com.

- QUANTITATIVE METHODOLOGY DISCUSSION GROUP: Learn about relevant theories and applications of various quantitative methodologies, and add value to your PhD life by sharing tips and strategies to manage the PhD effectively. Contact Nitika Kumari at autquantitativepmg@gmail.com.

- AUT NZ SCHOLARS and ASEAN STUDENTS’ GROUP: Meet students who are receiving an NZ Scholarship and/or have come to NZ from a South East Asian country. Contact Stenly Sajow at stenly.sajow@aut.ac.nz.

- DISTANCE STUDENTS GROUP: Join other distance students in this online group to swap tips and share your research journey with some new friends. Contact Helen Ough Dealy at words_that_work@xtra.co.nz.
• TOURISM & HOSPITALITY DOCTORAL TEA PARTY: Heads up postgrads and PhDs in the School of Hospitality & Tourism! Contact Richard Aquino at raquino@aut.ac.nz for more information.

• ART+DESIGN PG CLUB: Join with other Art + Design postgrad students for conversation and the sharing of ideas. Contact Laura Marsh at get@lauramarsh.nz or Richard Orjis at orjis@richardorjis.com.

• ART+DESIGN QUEER READING GROUP: This group is a fortnightly meet-up to discuss Queer theories pertinent to students’ research at AUT. Contact Richard Orjis at orjis@richardorjis.com.

• WELLINGTON PG COFFEE GROUP: If you are studying from the Wellington area, you can meet up with other PG students for coffee and conversation. Contact Bernie Whelan at whelan.bernard.j@gmail.com.

Not interested in these groups? Contact anaise.irvine@aut.ac.nz to start one of your own.

Funding - Scholarships Office

The AUT Scholarships Office administers a variety of postgraduate scholarships available to new and returning students. Staff at the Scholarships Office can advise on external sources of funding and provide assistance throughout the application process.

A comprehensive list of available funding opportunities is available from the AUT Scholarships Database: www.aut.ac.nz/scholarships. Application for all AUT funded scholarship and award opportunities is through the online scholarship application portal CommunityForce. Links to this portal are available from the AUT Scholarships Database. Advice regarding the process of application for advertised external funding opportunities is also available through the Database.

Other sources of funding information are:

- Research Professional – through AUTi
- Investigating industry connections
- GivMe database- accessed through AUT Scholarships website and library

The AUT Quality Assurance Process

AUT also provides access to quality assurance for students when applying for externally funded scholarships through the University Research and Innovation Office (URIO). There are also research staff within your faculty. URIO will:

- Provide approvals for all external research funding applications
- Provide advice on contracting with external funders
- Provide advice regarding commercial research & commercialisation
- Advise on Intellectual Property issues and market validation

Library & Learning Support Services

All Campus Libraries - Information & Research Services

On the City Campus the Library is located in the WA building. There are also facilities on the North Campus and the South Campus. Opening hours for all campus libraries are: 8am – 10pm Monday to Friday and 10am - 6pm Saturday and Sunday. Your AUT student ID card also serves as your library card and must be presented whenever you wish to borrow items.

Visit the website at http://www.library.aut.ac.nz for information about opening hours during semester breaks and public holidays as well to access a list of services offered, loan policies, contacts and various online forms.

A catalogue is available on the website to locate both print and electronic copies of items held in the Library & Learning Support Services' collection. You may search by keyword, title, author, subject headings and call number.

Using your AUT network login and password, you may also access your personal library record to check the items you have on loan, renew them or recall items which are currently on loan to another user.

You may renew books online. Print serials may be borrowed by postgraduate students for 3 days. The library provides 24-hour online access to a wide range of databases which enable you to search for journal articles. The majority of the library’s journals are now available in electronic format.

Workshops on effective use of the electronic resources are held regularly and you are also welcome to seek help at the circulation desk. Individual consultations can be arranged with Liaison Librarians. Please refer to the website for further details.

Items not held by Library & Learning Support Services may be requested by postgraduate students via the interloan service.

To use the photocopiers or printers in the library, you need to add credit to your photocopying and printing account which is linked to your student ID card. You may add credit at any of the kiosks using Eftpos, MasterCard or Visa credit card. Kiosks are located in the following locations:
City Campus

- WA, 4th floor Zone A Printing Area
- WA, 4th floor Zone B Library (Beside ICT Service Desk)
- WF, 2nd Floor

North Shore Campus

- AL125 Tech Central
- AF1 Tech Central

South Campus

Learning Advisors – Learning Success

Learning Advisors, in partnership with other stakeholders across the University, work with AUT postgraduate research students to develop academic literacies. Resources and annotated examples to assist you with such skills as referencing and paraphrasing, and writing paragraphs and literature reviews, are available at the following address: https://library.aut.ac.nz/

Learning Advisors also facilitate workshops as part of the Postgraduate Student Researcher Development Programme.

Student Hub

The AUT Student Hub is the one place to go for help. Located on each campus, the Student Hub gives you access to a range of services and support to help you succeed at AUT. Student Hub Advisors will help you with your study or personal needs, and will either resolve your need on the spot, or put you in touch with the right person on campus. Our trained and professional staff will follow up to ensure you get the support you need.

Student Hub services include:

- Advice (academic or personal)
- Employability and careers
- ID cards and graduation
- Fees and financial support
- Learning support
- Services for our diverse student communities – international, disability, LGBTI

PGR FORMS TO DOWNLOAD AND USE

Below, organised into categories, is a list of the PGR forms for all stages of the doctoral journey. These forms can be found on SDW. A direct link to the SDW location is as follows:
https://autuni.sharepoint.com/sites/sdw/research/prores/Pages/Postgraduate-Forms.aspx

Admission and transfers

- Form PGR2 – Admission to a doctoral programme
  Includes brief research proposal and must be accompanied by an Application for Enrolment. (AFE)

- Form PGR3 – Transfer of PhD candidature
  To be completed by a candidate transferring doctoral candidature to AUT from another institution.

- Form PGR5 – Transfer to the MPhil from an AUT doctoral programme
  Application detailing requirements for transfer to the MPhil.

Embargo Request

- Form PGR16 – Application for Embargo
  Application for embargoes to restrict access to a thesis/dissertation/exegesis. Applications should be lodged as soon as the need for confidentiality is identified.

Progression and changes in status

- Form PGR6 – Variation of record
  Application for changes such as mode of study, thesis topic or title, deferment, leave of absence of enrolment, withdrawal from programme, request for extension and expected completion.

- Form PGR7 – Notification of supervisory changes
  Appointment of additional supervisors and changes of supervisors.

- Form PGR22 – Appointment of an external supervisor
  Appointment of external supervisor to AUT.

- Form PGR8 – Progress report
  A six-monthly report on research progress by the candidate.

- Form PGR9 – Confirmation of candidature research proposal
  Application for confirmation of candidature and the full proposal.

- Form PGR10 – Major change in thesis topic
  Notification of significant change in thesis topic.

- Form PGR19 – Change of Faculty
Notification of change of faculty for doctoral students only.

Examinations

- Form PGR11 – Appointment of examiners
  A faculty postgraduate committee notification of examiners.

- Form PGR12 – Lodgement of thesis for examination
  A statement that the thesis is ready for examination.

- Form PGR14 – Completion of amendments as required by examiners

- Form PGR23 – Primary Supervisor report
  Primary supervisor report required upon doctoral candidate submission for examination.

Submission of final copies, post examination

- PGR15 – Deposit of thesis/dissertation/exegesis in the AUT library
  Form to accompany a thesis/dissertation/exegesis being deposited in the AUT library.

- Form PGR18 - Deposit of Master's Research Project in the AUT Library
  Form to accompany the electronic Master's Research Project and Practice Project being deposited in the AUT Library. If required you will be told to submit an electronic copy of the PGR18 form. Please discuss with your faculty for further details.

- Form PGR17 - Deposit of bachelor's dissertation/exegesis in the AUT library
  Form to accompany electronic dissertation/exegesis being deposited in the AUT library. If required you will be told to submit an electronic copy of the PGR17. Please discuss with your faculty for further details.
