2022-2023 Harvard Art Museums Student Board Application
6–9 hours/month during the academic year
Open to all Harvard first-years, sophomores, and juniors. We are not currently accepting seniors.
No art history experience required; all concentrations are welcome and encouraged to apply
Please note this is an unpaid opportunity

Applications will be considered on a rolling basis. Final application deadline: 11:59 pm on Sunday, September 11, 2022

Note: Please read the position descriptions carefully for the Student Board (SEO Job ID:19064; Crimson Careers Job ID: 164360) and the Student Guide program and apply to the one program that best suits your skills and interests.

Position Description

The Harvard Art Museums are accepting applications from Harvard first-years, sophomores, and juniors to join the Harvard Art Museums Student Board for the 2022-2023 academic year. Supported by the Manager of Campus Partnerships, the Student Board develops and implements self-directed projects and programs including the inaugural Student Board Public Lecture and the Museum Student Conference that highlight our collections, diverse perspectives, and encourage campus engagement. The Student Board will have the opportunity to go behind the scenes at a leading university art museum, advise museum staff at all levels, and think critically about pressing issues facing museums today. Accepted members will have the opportunity to run for officer positions including President, Vice President, Secretary, Events Chair, Communications Chair, and Conference Chair.

Student Board Responsibilities

— Actively participate in mandatory orientation session and bi-monthly board meetings (time to be determined). Small working groups of 3-4 members meet independently in addition to this meeting time. Meetings are suspended during reading and finals periods.
— Meaningfully contribute to project and program planning and attend Student Board hosted events
— Respond in a timely manner to communications from Student Board officers and museum staff
— Serve as peer-to-peer ambassadors promoting Harvard Art Museums’ resources, events, and programs to the student community
— Advise on aspects of student life at Harvard and share their perspective as students

Qualifications

— No art history background is necessary, but enthusiasm and excitement about the Harvard Art Museums are required. Students from all concentrations and backgrounds are strongly encouraged to apply!
To Apply

Please provide the following information using the format below. Resumes are optional, but not required.

Name (First and Last):
Pronouns:
Harvard email address:
HUID:
Graduation Year:
House or Dorm affiliation:
Concentration (or academic interests if you’re undeclared):
Other extracurricular activities and/or commitments (please indicate if you currently hold an existing position in any student organization):

In no more than 300 words each, please share your short answers to the following questions.

- Why would you like to be a member of the Harvard Art Museums Student Board?
- What skills, experiences, and perspectives will you bring to the group? Please include any relevant project management experience.
- Please describe an example of a project or program you would be interested in organizing as a member of the Student Board. This can include art-making activities, performances, social media initiatives, digital or physical publications, talks, or other interactive activities.
- What do you hope to gain from your experience on the Student Board?

Please apply by submitting the above materials online through the Student Employment Office (Job ID 164360) or Crimson Careers (Job ID 164360) by 11:59 pm on Sunday, September 11, 2022. Please note that applications will not be accepted via email.

Please contact Ana Barros, Manager of Campus Partnerships with questions at ana_m_barros@harvard.edu.

Sign up for our student-only email list to learn about upcoming student events and opportunities, and to receive the Harvard Art Museums monthly email newsletter.