Admission & Hours
Always Free
Open Tuesday to Sunday, 10am–5pm
Closed major holidays
Free admission to the Harvard Art Museums is made possible by a generous contribution from the Estate of David Rockefeller and support from the Office of the President at Harvard University.

Guidelines for Your Visit
We’re here to help! Stop by Visitor Services for assistance. While our gallery attendants’ primary responsibility is the safety and security of the people and the art in the museums, they are also available to help with a question or to point you in the right direction.

- Art is fragile; please don’t touch.
- Sketching is encouraged. Pick up a pencil at Visitor Services; no pens in the galleries.
- Food and drink are permitted only while seated at the cafe; please no outside food or drinks at the cafe.
- We offer complimentary lockers on Level 1 and the Lower Level; your backpack, umbrella, or any item larger than 11 × 14 inches must be stored.
- Please no flash, tripods, or selfie sticks for personal photography.

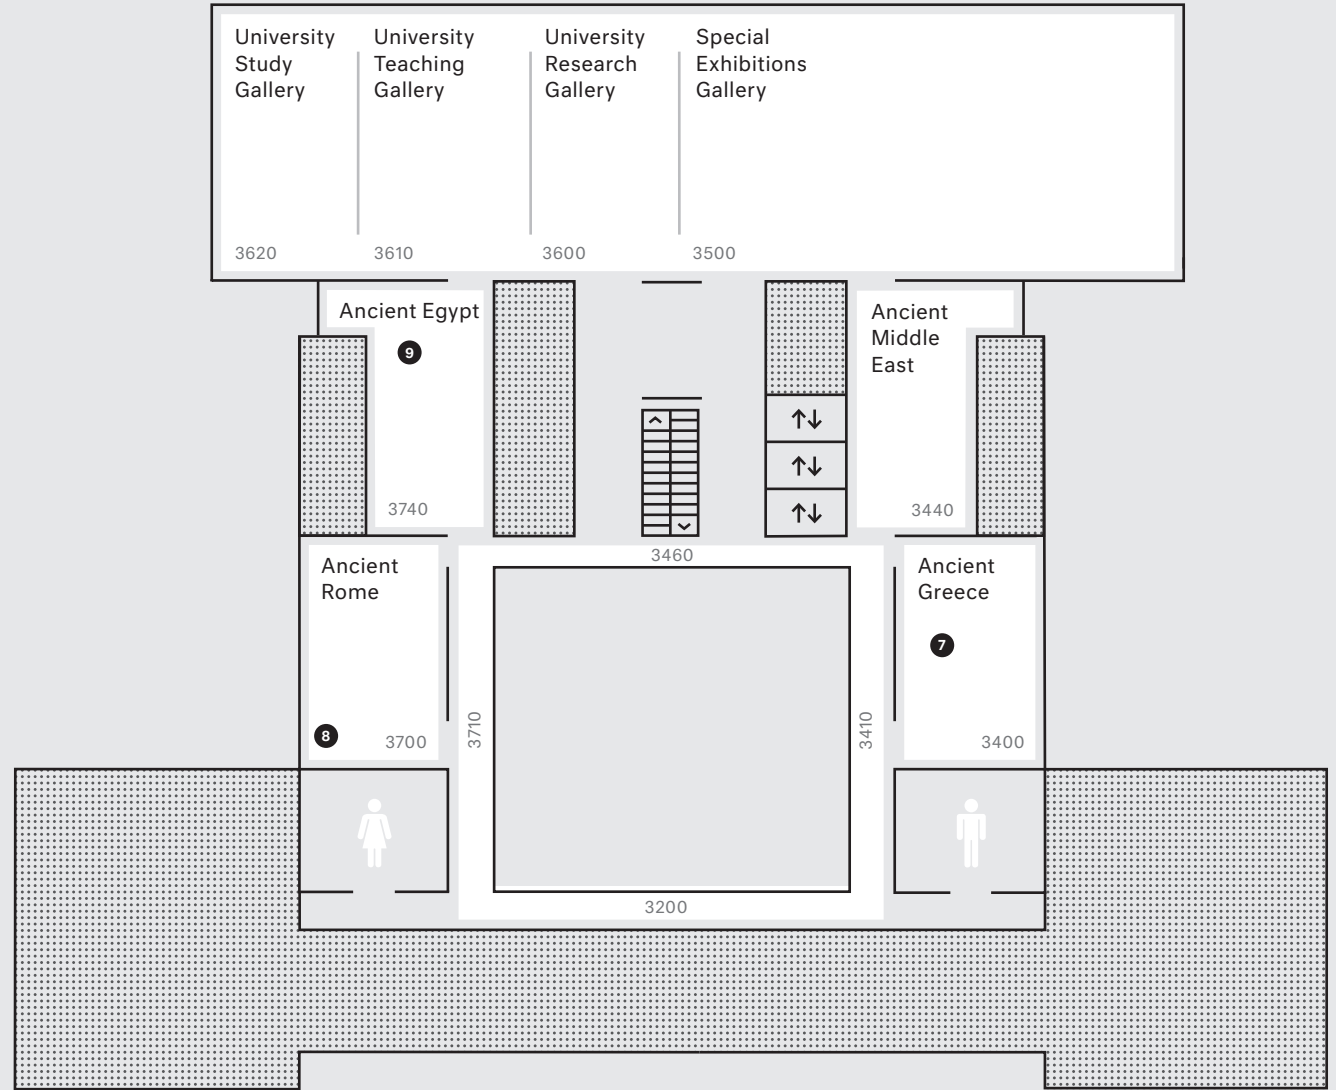

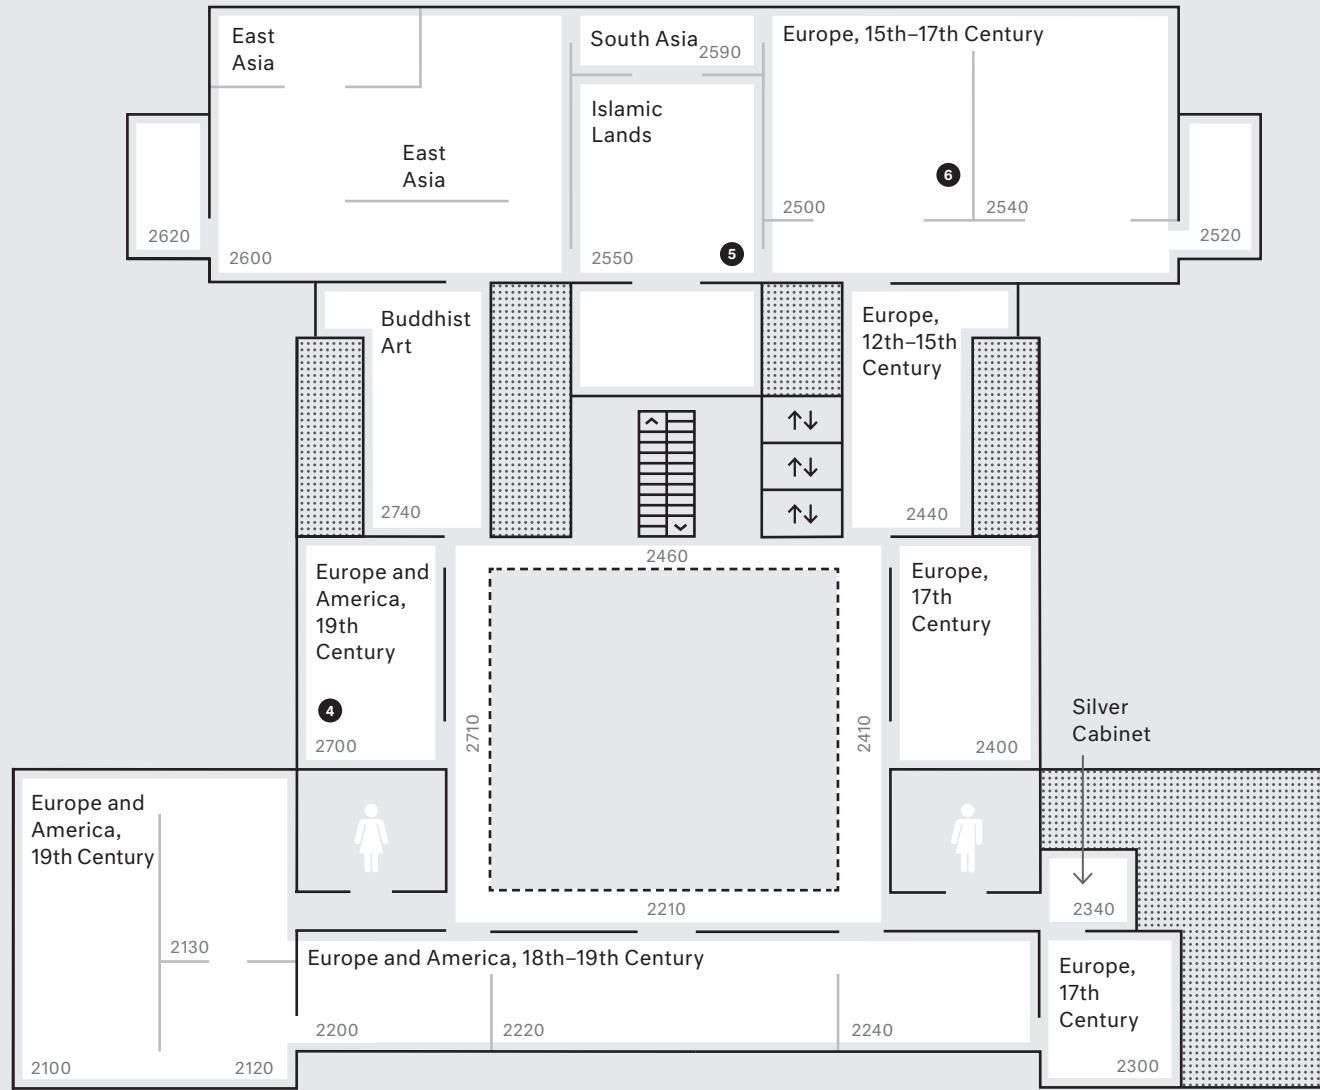

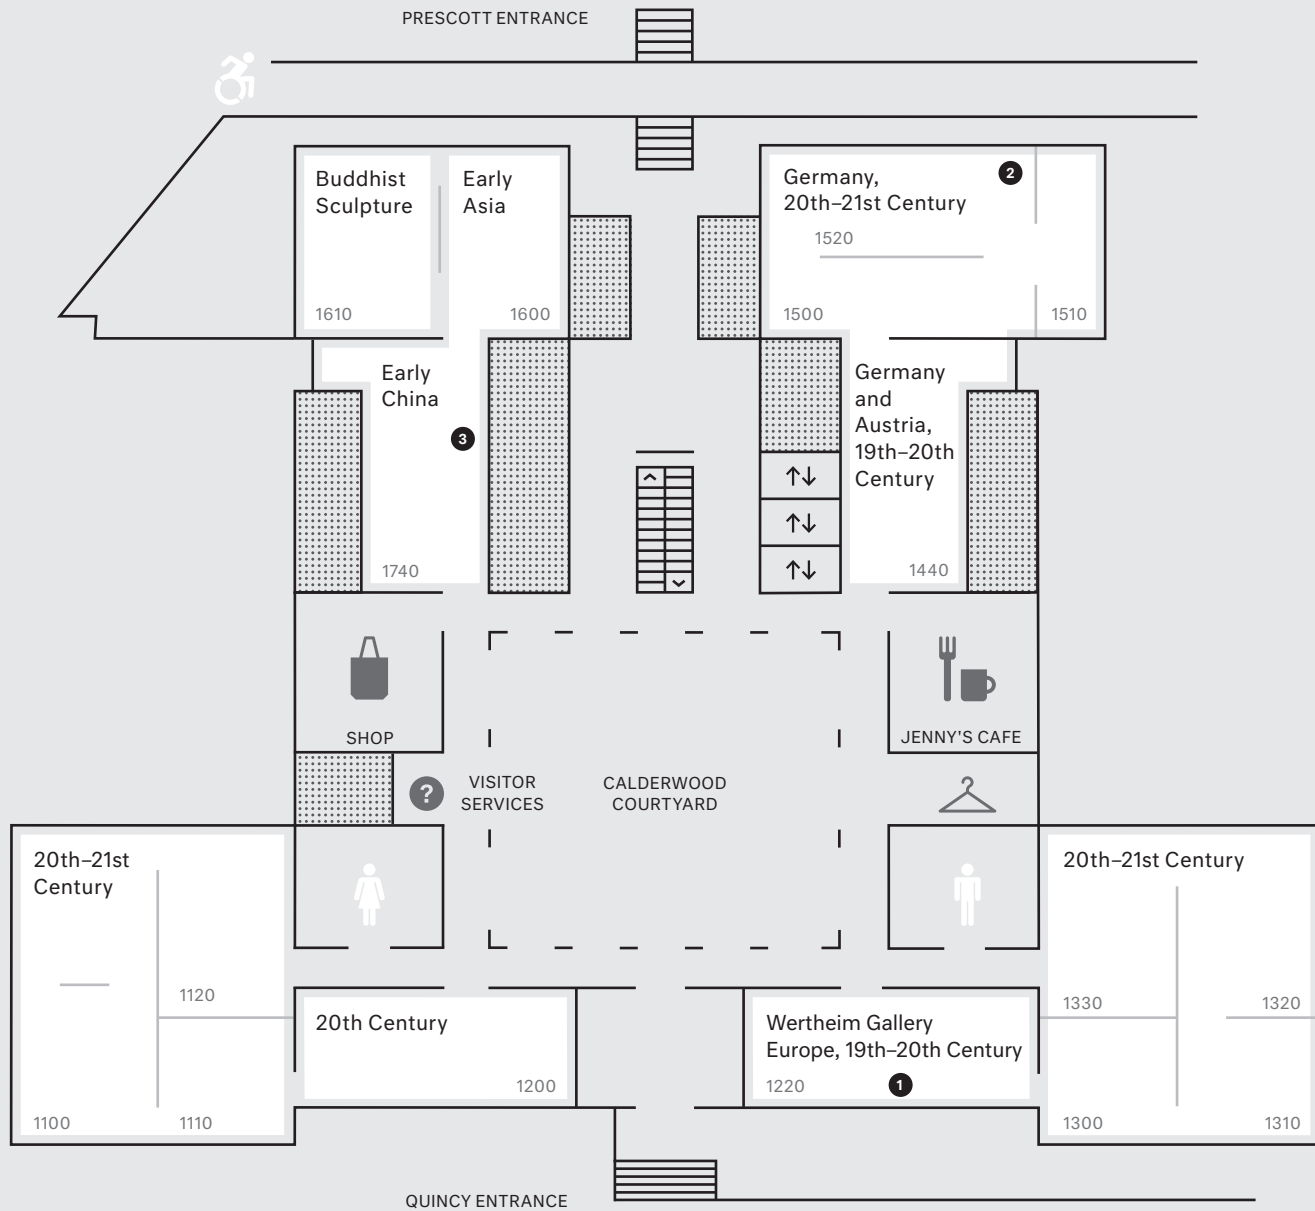

Accessibility
Visitors with mobility needs are encouraged to use the entrances on Prescott Street and Broadway; service animals are welcome; wheelchairs, walkers, and strollers are available to borrow; and large-print maps are available. Stop by Visitor Services to ask about any of these services. To prearrange accommodations for any of our programs, contact am_visitorservices@harvard.edu or 617-495-9400.

Restrooms are located on all floors and are equipped with changing tables. Single-occupancy restrooms can be found on Level 2 and Level B1.
