TODAY'S GUEST SPEAKER: Pastor John K. Jenkins, Sr. loves Heartland Church and serves as one of our At-Large Overseers, providing spiritual protection to our church and Pastor. He is the Senior Pastor of First Baptist Church of Glenarden. Under his leadership the church has grown to more than 10,000 members. With campuses in Landover and Upper Marlboro, Md., and a staff of 300 full- and part-time employees, FBCCG is widely recognized as a community pillar with 100+ ministries meeting diverse needs throughout the Washington, D.C. metropolitan area, nationally and abroad. Pastor Jenkins serves on the boards of numerous organizations and ministries, including Bethel University, Project Bridges, The Skinner Leadership Institute, the National Association of Evangelicals and a local hospital. In addition, Pastor Jenkins serves as chairman emeritus of SHABACH! Ministries, Inc., a 501(c)3 organization that he founded in 1996 to provide food, clothing, educational and employment opportunities in the Maryland area. He has also served as the Vice President of Converge Worldwide. Pastor Jenkins has received an honorary Doctorate of Divinity from Southern California School of Ministry. He and his wife, Trina, are the proud parents of six children and one granddaughter. After becoming a licensed pilot in 2002, he takes great delight in flying.

The act of faith is what distinguished our ancestors, set them above the crowd. (Hebrews 11:2, The Message)
