“Behold! I am making all things new!” (Revelation 21:5) Though change can be uncomfortable, these words remind us that God is never done working in our lives. With our faith in Jesus, we can rest assured that we are always moving toward a new beginning. In this series, we’ll walk confidently into a bright future. What’s being made new in your life?

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. How did God speak to you through this message?
2. Do you enjoy getting new clothes, or prefer to stick with what’s comfortable and worn?
3. Which of the “old” and “lurking” behaviors/habits in Colossians 3 do you commit to “take off” in 2019? (verses 5-9)
4. Which of the “new” characteristics of Christ-in-you, will you prayerfully and intentionally “put on” in 2019? (verses 12-14)
5. Ask someone in your community (friend, small group, spouse) to speak and pray into your commitment to shed the old, and wear the new in 2019.
