“Finding Love in All the Right Places” (pt. 2)
1 Corinthians 13: 4-13

“Love is very patient and kind, never jealous or envious, never boastful or proud,⁵ never haughty or selfish or rude. Love does not demand its own way. It is not irritable or touchy. It does not hold grudges and will hardly even notice when others do it wrong.⁶ It is never glad about injustice but rejoices whenever truth wins out.⁷ If you love someone, you will be loyal to him no matter what the cost. You will always believe in him, always expect the best of him, and always stand your ground in defending him.” (1 Corinthians 13:4-7 TLB)

II. The Permanence of Love

“When I was a child, I spoke like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child. When I became a man, I put aside childish things.¹² For now we see indistinctly, as in a mirror, but then face to face. Now I know in part, but then I will know fully, as I am fully known.¹³ Now these three remain: faith, hope, and love. But the greatest of these is love.”
