Hussain Ahmad Najadi, the first man to hold the position of director and chief executive officer of Arab-Malaysia Development Bank, was shot dead in an open space at an intersection close to his residence in Klang, Selangor on Oct 26, 1983. The prime minister, Tun Dr Mahathir Mohamad received a contribution from Hussain Ahmad Najadi on Oct 10, 1993, in Kuala Lumpur. The contribution of RM2 million in the form of shares from Arab Asian Bank, Bahrain, was for International Islamic University. With them is Arab-Malaysia Development Bank chairman, Tan Sri Azman Hashim.

Then prime minister Tun Dr Mahathir Mohamad received a contribution from Hussain Ahmad Najadi on Oct 26, 1983, in Kuala Lumpur. The contribution of RM2 million in the form of shares from Arab Asian Bank, Bahrain, was for International Islamic University. With them is Arab-Malaysia Development Bank chairman, Tan Sri Azman Hashim.

Hussain Ahmad Najadi was killed in a lane beside his residence. According to sources, he was shot dead by an unknown gunman.

Ex-bank MD shot dead

POSSIBLE BUSINESS MOTIVE: Hussain Ahmad Najadi, who was shot dead in Kuala Lumpur, was a director and chief executive officer of Arab-Malaysia Development Bank.

KUALA LUMPUR: Hussain Ahmad Najadi, who was shot dead in Kuala Lumpur, was a director and chief executive officer of Arab-Malaysia Development Bank.

Police could not immediately confirm whether it was a case of business-related murder.

Hussain Ahmad Najadi was an executive at Arab-Malaysia Development Bank. Police are investigating the possibility of a business motive.

Son in shock over murder

KUALA LUMPUR: A 26-year-old man was arrested on suspicion of murdering his father.

Police said the accused, a 26-year-old man, was arrested on suspicion of murdering his father.

Pascal, who holds dual Swiss and British citizenships, was the youngest of the three sons.

Next steps: Police are investigating the possibility of a business motive.

Hussain Ahmad Najadi was an executive at Arab-Malaysia Development Bank. Police are investigating the possibility of a business motive.

Son in shock over murder

KUALA LUMPUR: A 26-year-old man was arrested on suspicion of murdering his father.

Police said the accused, a 26-year-old man, was arrested on suspicion of murdering his father.

Pascal, who holds dual Swiss and British citizenships, was the youngest of the three sons.

Next steps: Police are investigating the possibility of a business motive.

Hussain Ahmad Najadi was an executive at Arab-Malaysia Development Bank. Police are investigating the possibility of a business motive.