Singer and TV personality SINITTA, 52, found fame with her single So Macho and famously dated Simon Cowell.

What's your worst habit?
Butting in.

What's your favourite word?
Actually – I say it a lot.

What is your experience of grief?
Losing pregnancies.

Who or what is the love of your life?
My dog Scarlett – she's a red toy poodle and I've had her since she was a puppy.

What makes you angry?
People stealing pets, it's like stealing a family member. I would die if someone stole Scarlett!

What's your earliest memory?
My mother [Miquel Brown, 72] making porridge, with me on her hip. I could smell the aroma as she stirred in cinnamon, sugar and butter.

What public figure do you most admire?
Oprah Winfrey. I've always been a huge fan. Growing up, I wanted to be like her.

If you could travel back in time, where would you go?
Back to the '80s - but with all the knowledge I have now!

How will you remember 2020?
It was like being in a weird movie. But I grew up because I read self-help books and reflected on what I wanted to do.

What song would you like played at your funeral?
As. Stevie Wonder did the original, but I knew George Michael, so maybe George's version. It's beautiful.

Who's the most famous person on your phone?
Simon Cowell. Urgh, he'll love that! F

Follow Sinitta on Twitter @Sinittao official.

---

Next week in Fabulous... Exclusive Davinia Taylor interview * ‘Lockdown helped us embrace our natural beauty’ * Do you need a digital diet? * How to make your kitchen pop