“I hate when I can’t remember”
John 15:18-27

Jesus wants us to remember

What he said and what he did

Jesus went first

He is with us in our pain

He is with us in our rejection

We’re hated because:

Jesus chose us

Jesus gave us his name

Becoming like Jesus isn’t “pick and choose”

Becoming like Jesus is yes or no.

We remember when we remain

Life group questions: Applying the teaching to our lives.

1. Following Jesus isn’t “pick and choose”. Following Jesus is “yes or no”. What are some teachings of Jesus you struggle to accept and why?
2. Has loving people, like Jesus, brought about hate in your life? Explain to the group what happened.
3. As a group review the Christ acronym. Discuss how each attribute helps us handle the hate that comes as we go and make disciples.
4. There is a popular phrase that says “the safest place is in the center of God’s will”. Do you agree or disagree? Explain your answer.
5. We should be people that love the name of Jesus. As you become a disciple how, specifically, have you seen power in his name?
