March 17th, 7:30-9:00pm - Artist Scott Erickson will be performing his new multi-media experiential piece titled "We Are Not Troubled Guests". Through spoken narrative, live painting, and curated video, Scott shares his most personal experience with faith, doubt, depression, and the solidarity of karaoke. Often funny with moments of brutal honesty, we begin to see our own journey through Scott's vulnerability and are given the gift of seeing how we really belong in the world. Pray With Us

Please continue to pray with us throughout the week that:

- Doors would be opened for people to hear the gospel in downtown Augusta
- We would be a unified body of believers representative of the diversities of our community.
- Church planters and missionaries with The Alliance and A29 around the globe would see doors open for the gospel.
- Specifically keep Paul & Lindsay Murphy in prayer as they head to Egypt.
- God would provide for Redemption Church with people and finances to see the gospel advance from our community

For Reflection and Discussion:

1. Do you believe Christ has ultimate authority?
2. Do you believe there is life in the giving?
3. Do you believe the Holy Spirit is advancing this thing toward beautiful restoration - with no more tears or quarrels or toil?
4. How will you bear witness of Jesus in such a way that fewer suffer, and the hungry eat, and sick are healed, and Salvation springs up from the ground until Jesus comes back?

Purpose: Gospel. Community. Mission.

Vision: To lead people to Jesus to lead people to Jesus.

Mission: To bridge barriers to the gospel through rhythms of practical Biblical teaching, practiced spiritual disciplines, relationship building, and personal service.
