

Robert Parker
WINE ADVOCATE

92
POINTS

ANDRÉ BRUNEL
LES CAILLOUX
Châteauneuf-du-Pape
Rouge
2015

André Brunel's Les Cailloux has been a staple over the years, so it was great to see the 2015 Châteauneuf du Pape shine in my big blind tasting. The blend of 70% Grenache, 15% Mourvèdre, 10% Syrah and 5% Cinsault hasn't changed much, nor has the élevage, almost entirely in cuves béton (concrete vats). This full-bodied wine displays scents of cracked pepper and clove, bright raspberry and cherry fruit, and firm, classically built tannins that turn silky on the long finish. It should drink well for up to 20 years.

Score Issued October 2017