DEMARIE

Hover over the heart of the Italian Piedmont and then zoom down amid the rolling hills -- you touch down in the famed Langhe region. This picturesque landscape and its sunny hillsides are home to an amazing range of grape varieties that represent the backbone of Italy's most respected wines. The winery is on the Roero side of the Tanaro River. The vineyards are on both sides of the river in 14 different locations that produce the best wines of the Piedmont.

Three generations of the Demarie Giovanni family have called the region and the village of Vezza d'Alba home. The family's hard work, expertise and love of winemaking have, since its founding in 1957, carved out 74 acres that yield spot-on examples of the region's special terroir.

True to Uva Import's mission of sourcing the best wines from family owned and operated vineyards, the Demarie story epitomizes that strategy. Paolo and his wife Monica bring backgrounds in finance to the table -- and bolster that with a consuming passion for the wine industry. Brother Aldo learned the agricultural side of business firsthand -- spending all of his life in the vineyard with his father.

With history reaching into the Middle ages, today the tiny paradise of hills and vineyards is well-known for its sandy terroir that is rich in sea fossil residue. Guyot-trained vines thrive on sunny slopes and alternate with abundant fruit and hazelnut orchards.
