

CATOCTIN CREEK

RABBLE ROUSER

RYE WHISKY

Bottled in Bond and distilled from 100% rye, the Rabble Rouser differs from its cousin, Roundstone Rye, in that it is distilled at a lower proof, allowing lots of earthy goodness from the grain to come through in the spirit. Our oldest offering to date!

TASTING NOTES:

Nectarines, clover honey, deep earthy spice, forest, sandalwood, cigar tobacco, uncured bacon, a hint of mesquite, white peaches and peanuts.

50% ALC. BY VOL.

"[Catocтин Creek distillers] pull out all the stops for this very special limited offering distilling the 100% rye mash to a lower proof capturing a significant amount of extra flavors typically lost to the stills and bottling at 100 proof." — Astor Wines and Spirits

CATOCIN CREEK

TRUE CRAFT INSPIRED BY TRADITION

Becky Harris is a Chemical Engineer and Chief Distiller at Catocin Creek Distillery. In 2009, she and her husband, Scott Harris, combined their engineering and business backgrounds to build a distillery focused on creating the finest Virginia Rye Whisky from grain to glass. Her passion is creating award-winning rye whisky, unique gin expressions, and locally-sourced brandies of the highest quality, with an emphasis on local and organic sourcing of grain, fruit and herbs. Catocin Creek has been featured in numerous publications including the New York Times, Washington Post, Jim Murray's Whisky Bible, and Whisky Advocate. The Daily Beast, Forbes, and Men's Journal have highlighted the distillery as an example of great American craft distilleries making whisky from scratch.
