ABOUT ANGULO INNOCENTI

Founded by Italian immigrants to Argentina in the late 19th century, Angulo Innocenti is a winery based in Argentina's most famous winegrowing region, Mendoza. At the foot of the majestic Andes mountains in a southerly area of Mendoza, Angulo Innocenti crafts wines from Argentina's prized grape, Malbec, in addition to popular varieties such as Cabernet Sauvignon and Sauvignon Blanc. The 3rd and 4th generations of the Innocenti family run the winery today.

THE WINE

A Angulo Innocenti Malbec is made from 100% Malbec grapes grown in the La Consulta area of Mendoza, Argentina.

A With a deep, intense purple color, the wine offers rich, dark fruit flavors and delicate violet notes.

A This wine also shows freshness, balance, and perfect acidity.
