ABOUT PEREGRINE

Peregrine Wines is located in the southernmost winegrowing region in the world in Central Otago, the heart of New Zealand's South Island. Named in honor of New Zealand's endemic falcon, a bird that combines both power and finesse, the essence of Peregrine's range of wines. Since the first vintage in 1998, it has gained a reputation both domestically and internationally as one of New Zealand's iconic wine brands.

THE WINE

-  Fresh fennel and pineapple guava, stone fruits and herbal notes
-  A beautiful wine that reflects a commitment to organic wine-growing
-  Pairs well with seafood and antipasta
