ABOUT PATIENT COTTAT

Situated in the charming village of Verdigny in France's Loire Valley, Patient Cottat produces typical wines from the region including Sancerre, Menetou-Salon, and Pouilly-Fumé. Patient Cottat is named after a famous French "Master Goldsmith" who lived during the mid-19th century and loved the central Loire Valley. Today, Patient Cottat is a family-run winery and follows sustainable winemaking methods.

ABOUT PATIENT COTTAT

- ◆ Patient Cottat Le Grand Caillou Rosé is produced from 100% Pinot Noir grapes in the Loire Valley of France.
- ◆ Rose pink color, and aromas of strawberry, rose petals and pomegranate seeds.
- ◆ Crisp and lush palate with fruity and subtle flavors, this wine is completely dry with refreshing acidity.
- ◆ An elegant wine that pairs well with charcuterie, red meat, cheeses, and beef bourguignon.
