FALL 2025 LIMITED RELEASE

From wild agave fields to high mountain trails, this limited collection fuses the worlds of art and spirit. Featuring original label artwork by artist and pro skier Chris Benchetler, the design captures the spirit's soul through hand-drawn lines and earthy tones, reflecting the land it comes from.

A CELEBRATION OF TERROIR

Lágrimas del Valle is a terroir-driven tequila brand, highlighting agave from single ranches—each release offering a rare and honest expression of place.

WHAT MAKES IT UNIQUE

- Rancho Único: Lágrimas is the only independent tequila brand focused exclusively on single-ranch agave, embracing terroir in its truest form.
- Terroir Defined: Soil, climate, and geography shape the flavor, resulting in tequila that reflects the soul of the land.
- Limited Edition: Each release is a one-time bottling, never replicated.

FALL 2025 RELEASE

Agave Source: La Sabina Ranch

Located in Guanajuato near La Romita, La Sabina is a high-altitude ranch cradled in a valley surrounded by mountains. Here, agave grows among huizache (Sweet Acacia) trees, rooted in dark, dry, and dense soils.

Dramatic swings in temperature, strong winds, and occasional frost create stress conditions that yield slow-growing, intensely flavorful agave. The result is an extraordinary tequila with soul, structure, and story.
