

SUMMER READING

All students in rising first - fifth grades are required to complete summer reading. Reading requirements are listed below and the reading log is located on the back of this sheet. All reading logs are due for a reading grade by Friday, August 14th.

Rising First Grade - Read your choice of books, list the titles on the Summer Reading log and sign it to receive a daily reading grade.

(15) books = a reading grade of E

(12) books = a reading grade of S+

(10) books = a reading grade of S

2nd - 5th grade Novels

Rising Second Grade - Magic Tree House (Book #4) Pirates Past Noon by Mary Pope Osborne. List the title and sign the Summer Reading log to receive one daily grade of 100% in reading. Your teacher will use this book for several writing projects at the beginning of the year. Please note: Parents are welcome to read this book with students should they find this too challenging.

Rising Third Grade - The Boxcar Children and one other Boxcar Mystery Series book. List the title and sign the Summer Reading log to receive one daily grade of 100% in reading. Your teacher will use this book for several writing projects at the beginning of the year.

Rising Fourth Grade - Ribsy by Beverly Cleary and one book of their choosing. List the titles and sign the Summer Reading log to receive one daily grade of 100% in reading. Your teacher will use these books for several writing projects at the beginning of the year.

Rising Fifth Grade - Summer of the Monkeys by Wilson Rawls and one book of their choosing. List the titles and sign the Summer Reading log to receive one daily grade of 100% in reading. Your teacher will use this book for several writing projects at the beginning of the year.