CONTACT: Randall Lyons – Randall@boatma.com / FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE- 4/1/25

The National Marine Trades Council (NMTC) will hold its annual conference July 21st to 24th in Portland, Maine

The National Marine Trades Council has announced the dates and location for its 52nd anniversary conference. NMTC will return July 21st to 24th in Portland, ME, with the host hotel being the Portland Harbor Hotel located in the heart of downtown Portland. The NMTC conference is open to all leaders from local, state, and national marine trade associations.

Lori Wheeler, Vice President of the Marine Industries Association of South Florida, will be the 2025 Chair of the Conference, and Matt Gruhn, President of the Marine Retailers Association of the Americas, will be the Vice Chair. The Maine Marine Trades Association will host this year's conference. NMTC is considered a premier educational and networking event for association leaders. The conference offers a unique opportunity to share information and ideas with colleagues nationwide.
