

Wet Sounds® Partners with Land 'N' Sea Distributing, Inc. to Expand Availability of High-Performance Marine Audio Products

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

September 2, 2025

Houston, Texas - Wet Sounds®, a leader in high-performance marine and powersports audio, proudly announces a new distribution partnership with Land 'N' Sea Distributing, Inc., one of the largest wholesale distributors of marine and RV parts and accessories in the United States. This strategic partnership will significantly expand access to Wet Sounds' full line of premium audio products throughout the U.S.

Effective immediately, Land 'N' Sea's extensive network of marine and RV dealers can now source Wet Sounds' cutting-edge audio solutions. These include marine speakers, amplifiers, soundbars, and subwoofers, all known for their durability, innovation, and exceptional sound performance on the water.

Industry Leaders Share Their Excitement

"This partnership with Land 'N' Sea represents a major milestone in Wet Sounds' mission to bring our industry-leading marine audio experience to more customers across the United States. Land 'N' Sea's strong dealer network and trusted reputation in the marine and RV industries make them an ideal distribution partner for us." -Mark Gerick, Business Unit Director, Wet Sounds, Inc. – A Patrick Industries Company

"We're excited to add Wet Sounds to our marine audio portfolio. Their dedication to quality, innovation, and performance aligns perfectly with what our customers expect. This partnership allows our dealers to meet the growing demand for premium sound on the water with convenient access through our national distribution network." -John Luther, Category Manager, Land 'N' Sea Distributing, Inc.
