

Location Enhancements Announced for the 2026 Discover Boating Miami International Boat Show

11/19/2025 12:00:00 AM | Boat/Sportshows

2025 Miami International Boat Show

NMMA, in partnership with Informa Markets and the International Yacht Brokers Association (IYBA), has announced two significant enhancements to the on-water footprint for the 2026 Discover Boating® Miami International Boat Show®. These updates are designed to elevate the exhibitor and consumer experience, improve boat show navigation, and strengthen visibility for brands.

Miami Beach Yacht Collection returning to Collins Avenue

The redefined Miami Beach Yacht Collection is returning to Collins Avenue along Indian Creek to provide:

- A premium environment aligned with the expectations of high-end buyers
- Improved proximity to the Miami Beach Convention Center and Pride Park
- Increased visibility and accessibility for luxury-focused consumers

Dedicated Sailing Destination at Sailor's Cove – IGY Yacht Haven Grande

Sailor's Cove will serve as the Miami Boat Show location for sailing brands, bringing together vessels, gear, and sailing lifestyle experiences within a premier marina venue. IGY Yacht Haven Grande includes:

- Upgraded docks and exhibitor amenities
- Enhanced attendee flow with direct connectivity to other show locations
- A unified environment tailored to the sailing community

Continuity Across Core Show Venues

The Miami Beach Convention Center, Pride Park, and Superyacht Miami will continue as cornerstone destinations within the show's footprint, ensuring continuity for returning attendees while integrating with the new on-water locations and making the experience between locations more seamless.