Michigan Boating Industries Association Announces 2026 Board of Directors
*Officers Appointed

Commerce Twp., Mich., December 16, 2025 – At the MBIA Annual Meeting on December 4, four marine businesspeople were elected to serve as directors of the Michigan Boating Industries Association, a state-wide, non-profit marine trade association representing more than 350 marine businesses in Michigan.

Dan Delmotte of MacRay Harbor and Jeff Nichols of Aqua Sports Marine were elected as State-Wide Directors. Tom Den Herder of Yacht Basin Marina was re-elected as SW Board Director and Liz Carney, Retired from Grand Bay Marine was re-elected as At Large Director. All will serve three-year terms.

Officers appointed for 2026 are: Amy Crouchman of Walstrom Marine as Chairman; Pete Beauregard, Jr. of Colony Marine as Vice Chair; and Rick Fleming from Irish Boat Shop as Secretary/Treasurer.

Other directors on the Board who will continue to serve in 2026 include: Chris Anderson of Anderson's Boat Sales, Rob Davis of Club Royale, Torre Miller of Diesel Fuel Doctor, and Paul Mitter of Wonderland Marine.

MBIA is the official, state-wide marine industry association which serves as the voice to Michigan's $11.7 billion marine industry and the 4 million people who enjoy Michigan's 850,000 registered boats. The MBIA is dedicated to the advancement, protection, and promotion of boating across Michigan. MBIA produces three association-owned boat shows, the Progressive Detroit Boat Show, the Progressive Novi Boat Show, and the Progressive Metro Boat Show. The proceeds from these shows benefit boating in Michigan through MBIA programs and promotions. For more information about the MBIA, go to www.mbia.org or call 734.261.0123.
