

Small Group Questions

Philippians 2.19-30

Paul mentioned that Timothy showed genuine concern for people. What should that look like in our context?

Timothy and Epaphroditus are great examples of willing servants of God. What do you notice about their lives in the text?

Who is someone you admire in regards to their faith. What specifically sets them apart?

In vs. 29 it says we should honor people like Epaphroditus. What does it look like to honor people who honor Christ?