

GENESIS 1:31-2:1

“God saw all that he had made, and it was very good indeed. Evening came and then morning: the sixth day. So the heavens and the earth and everything in them were completed.”

GENESIS 3:6-11

...Then the eyes of both of them were opened, and they knew they were naked; so they sewed fig leaves together and made coverings for themselves... So the LORD God called out to the man and said to him, “Where are you?” And he said, “I heard you in the garden, and I was afraid because I was naked, so I hid.”

NUMBERS 13:1-3, 26-33

LUKE 1:26-38

1 JOHN 4:16-18

And we have come to know and to believe the love that God has for us. God is love, and the one who remains in love remains in God, and God remains in him. In this, love is made complete with us so that we may have confidence in the day of judgment, because as he is, so also are we in this world. There is no fear in love; instead, perfect love drives out fear, because fear involves punishment. So the one who fears is not complete in love.

REFLECTION QUESTIONS:

- How has fear shaped the way you see God and yourself?
- When God is inviting you into something that might induce fear, what will help you respond more like Mary and Caleb, rather than like the Israelite spies?
- What would it look like for Perfect Love to cast out fear in your life – in your thoughts, relationships, or decisions?
