

As we continue our journey through Acts, we are making a little pivot out of the Book of Acts and going to be focusing on the letters Paul wrote to the churches he planted on his missionary journeys. Each letter addresses problems, situations, and questions that arose after Paul left. Today, we are going to follow his first missionary journey through the region of Galatia. The Galatian churches have been infiltrated with a false gospel, a perverted distortion of Paul's message.

Paul's Journey through Galatia is found in Acts 13-14

Acts 14: 22, The next day he went away with Barnabas to Derbe. 21 After they had preached the gospel to that city and had made many disciples, they returned to Lystra and to Iconium and to Antioch, 22 strengthening the souls of the disciples, encouraging them to continue in the faith, and saying, “Through many tribulations we must enter the kingdom of God.” 23 When they had appointed elders for them in every church, having prayed with fasting, they commended them to the Lord in whom they had believed.
