

Philippians 3:12-16

12Not that I have already obtained all this, or have already arrived at my goal, but I press on to take hold of that for which Christ Jesus took hold of me. 13Brothers and sisters, I do not consider myself yet to have taken hold of it. But one thing I do: Forgetting what is behind and straining toward what is ahead, 14I press on toward the goal to win the prize for which God has called me heavenward in Christ Jesus. 15All of us, then, who are mature should take such a view of things. And if on some point you think differently, that too God will make clear to you. 16Only let us live up to what we have already attained.

How passionate and intentional are you about knowing Jesus, becoming like him, and doing his will?

I. The Race Worth Running

II. Live Race Ready

⇒ Qualities of a Mature Christian

- Actively seeks and surrenders to God
Where would you put yourself on a continuum of passively to actively seeking and surrendering to God?
- The Fruit of the Spirit is evident and pervasive in their life.
On a continuum of never to always, how well are you exhibiting the fruit of the Spirit when you're tired and/or irritated?
- Lives a life of Service
What percentage of your focus and time is self-oriented vs. others-oriented?

III. Run with Partners

Philippians 3:17-21

17Join together in following my example, brothers and sisters, and just as you have us as a model, keep your eyes on those who live as we do. 18For, as I have often told you before and now tell you again even with tears, many live as enemies of the cross of Christ. 19Their destiny is destruction, their god is their stomach, and their glory is in their shame. Their mind is set on earthly things. 20But our citizenship is in heaven. And we eagerly await a Savior from there, the Lord Jesus Christ, 21who, by the power that enables him to bring everything under his control, will transform our lowly bodies so that they will be like his glorious body.
