00:19:22 Mike: 😊

00:21:14 Sue Cleek: Susan K Cleveland web site : <https://piecesbewithyou.com>

00:22:43 Leah: I have both collections.

00:25:48 Mike: Teresa - No. They are just there until they fall off as you add new saved outlines.

00:26:04 Karen Rosselli: so you think they will be saying capacity to the custom area to as more of the designs?

00:26:20 Karen Rosselli: adding capacity

00:26:55 Mike: Don't think there are plans to do that at this time, but it is something we can pass along to our product development team.

00:29:22 Mike: The Dresden Plate outline? You can save them to either the machine memory, a USB, or even a SD. It's just personal preference and whatever makes the most sense to you.

00:32:20 Mike: Oh, gotcha. You can save those to USB and SD card as well. Just open the saved outline into your IQ work area and use the memory key. They will save out as an IQ Designer file.

00:35:58 Lynne: When you rotate the orientation of the design changes

00:37:15 TroyJennene Gibbs: I'll have to re-watch to see how you broke apart to get more Dresden plates on the screen

00:37:41 Michelle Kaufman: Almost out of fabric 🙄

00:38:04 Lynne: Is there a way to keep the design oriented

00:42:57 Margret: what about seam allowance?

00:44:02 karen ouhrabka: Did you use a tear away stabilizer or just the fusible after/

00:44:17 Mike: Just the fusible - no stabilizer

00:44:55 Karen Schwieger: I cut my leftover fabrics into 1 1/2' strips and making a postage stamp quilt.

00:45:56 Carol Clothier: Can't wait for cross stitch

00:47:35 Teresa W: Do the stitches where you cut ever come unraveled?

00:48:37 Donna Guthridge: Loving this

00:48:41 Elle McKirdy: Love it!

00:48:42 Teresa W:

00:48:44 Carol: Yes, makes sense. Perfect

00:48:45 kay: This is great!

00:48:53 Robyn: Better late than never! Hi all.

00:49:22 April Dunn: along fences

00:50:59 carole woehlke: Sunflowers

00:51:53 Roxanna: Doorway hanger

00:51:53 TroyJennene Gibbs: I made a flower pot with a sunflower made out of a Dresden plate design; I like these techniques but probably not make a banner

00:53:05 Karen Schwieger: My daughter in law is a US History teacher and I'm making some of these for her classroom

00:53:11 Roxanna: Table toppers

00:59:16 Roxanna: I use a piece of acrylic no melt to iron at the same time

00:59:20 Sue Cleek: You can use the corner of your ruler, althouhg you cannot iron on it.

00:59:48 Sue Cleek: And you can iron on the Prairie Pointer

01:00:32 Sue Cleek: And it also is easily lost in a drawer!

01:00:40 Margret: can you give the name of that again

01:01:15 Roxanna: Great idea!

01:01:20 Kim Harrington: Interesting!

01:05:57 Kim Harrington: I love all the stories!

01:06:34 TroyJennene Gibbs: I bought a "hot hemmer" so I can iron without burning my fingers when I get close to points/tip of fabric

01:06:51 Kippy Alston: I did!! Ready for the beach!!

01:06:55 Carol: The bag was so much fun.

01:06:56 Roxanna: Mylar

01:07:01 Sue Cleek: Oh, Yes - you could easily use the hot hemmer!

01:07:35 Kim Harrington: Fabric folding pen works great!

01:08:06 TroyJennene Gibbs: those are nice too. a retreat table mate gifted everyone at our table with those finger guards

01:08:07 Roxanna: When I sewed through my finger I used the metal cover ER gave me for weeks thereafter

01:08:07 carole woehlke: I don't make them..I just buy the stuff to make them

01:08:45 Abbie: did I miss the triangle tool name Patty is using to iron the points with?

01:09:05 carole woehlke: What foot is that?

01:09:10 Mike: Susan Cleveland Prairie Pointer

01:09:33 Deb Bone-Harris: Have you ever used the red SewFine Ultra T high performance feet? Are they worth it?

01:10:08 Sue Cleek: Abbie - it is called The Prairie Pointer by Susan Cleveland -

01:10:17 Leni & Hank Herman: Those are the Floriani feet

01:10:27 Deb Bone-Harris: It says its a Babylock/Brother Teflon Foot kit. Just curious.

01:10:59 Deb Bone-Harris: thanks

01:11:14 Debra Clark: I'm a sucker, bought the SewFine feet at an event. Of course, never used.

01:11:19 TroyJennene Gibbs: I buy only the Babylock brand original feet

01:11:56 Sandra Lynn: Like a sewing Ham?

01:12:14 Debra Clark: Too bad we can't share pictures here. I have purchased everything you've mentioned.

01:13:07 Carol: Used at least-well once.

01:13:14 carole woehlke: Then you can't find a tool and go buy another one!

01:13:15 Kim Harrington: I have a bag full of things that are still in the package. Never used and never will!

01:13:23 TroyJennene Gibbs: Patti - so understandable; so much fabric, so little time

01:13:58 karen ouhrabka: How would you use the fabric folding pen to help open seams?

01:14:24 Linda McMaster: Yes, they are wonderful!

01:14:26 Karen Schwieger: yes - the pen is great

01:14:27 Kim Harrington: I use mine ALL the time

01:14:31 Cindy Yialouris: Fabric folding pen is awesome!

01:14:32 Krystal M: Never tried

01:14:38 Alice Curtis: Love the pen

01:14:41 Carol: Love the fabric folding pen, especially in the hoop too

01:14:52 Roxanna: Roller gadget from Lori Holt

01:14:57 Leiann: Love that pen! I actually have 2!

01:15:31 TroyJennene Gibbs: if I get lazy & don't wish to get up to iron; I use the stiletto
BYANNIE; has a flat end that helps flatten seams

01:15:38 Kim Harrington:I've got three or four, one has water only for removing marks

01:16:13 Kim Harrington:Blue fabric marker marks

01:16:32 Sandra Lynn: You are the best work/pseudo siblings -you get along so well, it doesn't seem like you are even working. 😂

01:18:10 Cindy Yialouris: Tuned in late. Where did you get that "perfect" fabric?

01:18:57 Mike: We made it! It is just solid color fabric but we added custom fills in IQ Designer.

01:19:18 Cindy Yialouris: Oh my! That's awesome Mike!

01:19:38 Sharon Neville: The Clover Roll and Press works very well, too.

01:19:39 Mike: Pretty fun, right?

01:19:40 Kim Harrington:I have done that Patty. Totally works

01:19:45 karen ouhrabka: Thanks! Mine is still in box. I'll definitely use it.

01:20:08 Cindy Yialouris: I'll have to re-watch from the beginning.

01:20:08 Kim Harrington:The center crease

01:20:53 Kim Harrington:Noooooooooooo

01:21:12 April Dunn: Platter collars

01:21:45 ellenrudd: Wait um

01:24:02 Arlene Kelsey: you guys are not ever boring ALWAYS entertaining!!!!!!!!!!

01:25:58 Karen Schwieger: Could we cut the circles with our electronic cutters?

01:26:24 Connie Lucero: Can you use the Baby Lock circular attachment?

01:26:44 Kim Harrington:Olfa has one too

01:26:56 Karen Schwieger: Oh - I have the BL circle thingie

01:27:13 Sharon Neville: Olfa makes a circle cutter, too.

01:27:51 Kim Harrington:Float it on WSS

01:29:16 April Dunn: use pinking shears and helps may nice when turned...like clipping curves

01:30:35 Alice Curtis: I agree. Kai pinking shears ARE the best.

01:30:38 April Dunn: pinking rotary cutting blade

01:32:39 April Dunn: spray adhesive

01:34:00 Kim Harrington: I'm thinking I would like something for my front porch, if I can find the time!

01:35:51 Cynthia Hilfiker: I was told if you turn off the machine lights you can see the projector better. I haven't tried it.

01:36:06 Patsy Drindak: If you put the Dresden banner outside, what type of fabric would you use?

01:36:19 Mike: No problem at all Cathy. Just stay safe.

01:36:28 Deb Bone-Harris: Isn't that N+ foot just fabulous!

01:36:43 Sue Cleek: Bi level foot

01:36:45 Kippy Alston: I got new glasses today!!!

01:36:55 Kippy Alston: Really makes a difference!

01:37:35 Cindy Yialouris: PUL fabric?

01:37:36 Kim Harrington: Scotch Guard?

01:37:52 Carol: Need a Teflon plate for the outdoor fabric.

01:37:58 Kippy Alston: Rip Stop Nylon is good too

01:38:02 Kim Harrington: I love that!

01:38:32 karen ouhrabka: Did you use the L/R shift to get 3.75 width. Regular width goes from 3.5 then to 4.0

01:38:42 TroyJennene Gibbs: love making my own binding out of whatever type of fabric that matches

01:38:54 Cathy M: The outdoor waterproofing spray is actually a silicone based spray sold in the camping outdoor area in the larger big box stores.

01:39:18 karen ouhrabka: Ok yes. I was on the 2 menu. Thanks

01:40:05 Kippy Alston: Will the design be in the instructions you post? Or are they there already? The picture we scan?

01:40:24 Mike: It is in the instructions :)

01:40:30 Kippy Alston: Thank you

01:40:30 Cathy M: Sunbrella Fabric Guard also will make the fabric water repellent and is for ALL fabrics.

01:41:13 TroyJennene Gibbs: this week purchased a new bias knit/woven binder for the Serger & that will be nice to try it out on this project

01:41:34 Carolyn: I still have bias tape I bought when WT Grants went out of business in 1976

01:42:34 Kippy Alston: So Cute!!! I am loving this idea!! Thank you, Patty!

01:42:56 Kippy Alston: Oooo! Mardi Gras!!

01:43:12 Cathy M: Carolyn, I wonder how many of us even remember or know what Grants was???? That is one store I haven't heard the name in years! Bought lots of fabric and sewing supplies there back in the day!

01:43:21 Mike: STL has a huge Mardi Gras.

01:43:32 Sharon Vaulman: LOL Carolyn. I cleaned my sewing box and found a zipper that I paid 69 cents for.

01:43:41 ellenrudd: I remember Grants. Im 72!!

01:43:48 Carol: the quilt binding foot would be great for this

01:43:51 TroyJennene Gibbs: how long before break?

01:43:56 Kippy Alston: My hubs grew up in NOLA. We are Mardi Gras people, for sure!

01:43:58 Roxanna: Would you stitch in the ditch to attach the back?

01:45:50 Kim Harrington: Kippy, mine too!

01:46:00 April Dunn: hang beads

01:46:07 Kippy Alston: Mardi Gras beads!!

01:46:25 Glenda Marsh: What was the beginning measurement when you drew the Dresden pattern?

01:46:34 Kim Harrington: I am excited to make some!

01:46:39 karen ouhrabka: Thank you—great project!

01:47:00 Kippy Alston: Love this project!! Love it!

01:47:34 Krystal M: where is the mastering IQ book from?

01:47:51 April Dunn: mike---rhinestone, you're channeling Missy

01:47:55 Mike: It's from Baby Lock. Your retailer can get it for you.

01:48:03 pfritze: Love it. Will certainly be , making this!!!

01:48:08 Mike: Oh I rhinestone a ton. :)

01:48:36 Mike: icandyfabricart.com

01:49:20 Kim Harrington: Yay!

01:49:47 Kim Harrington: Never find them again

01:50:19 Kippy Alston: You can never be too organized!

01:50:42 Cathy M: Looks like fun!

01:50:45 TroyJennene Gibbs: stop recording for break right?

01:51:01 TroyJennene Gibbs: 😊

02:06:53 April Dunn: no sound

02:06:57 Donna Guthridge: no sound

02:07:07 Kippy Alston: Pk

02:07:26 Cindy Yialouris: can hear you now

02:07:56 Leah: It would make a great pillow wrap for a larger pillow.

02:08:12 April Dunn: Leah love that idea

02:08:19 Kim Harrington: I have been having the blue screen of death on my laptop, so if I go away, you'll know why.... 😊

02:09:02 Sharon Vulman: Can these designs be stored on your machine?

02:09:23 ellenrudd: I want to learn how to use the couching foot!

02:09:23 Mike: Sure. Open them on the machine and add them to memory.

02:10:02 Cathy M: Patty, you are definitely the queen of yarn couching!

02:10:07 Sharon Vulman: Thank you! I was wondering if you could save them as a category.

02:11:15 Kippy Alston: Looks like Sashiko

02:11:30 April Dunn: fir the wall hanging...could do the shamrock or other holidays as a separate pieces/designs and change out easily with seasons...like they sell signs like that

02:11:52 Cindy Yialouris: are those the sashiko like stitches then?

02:11:56 Mike: Good catch Kippy! It is supposed to have the Sashiko look.

02:12:29 Kippy Alston: Cool!

02:14:41 Mike: LOL

02:15:32 Kippy Alston: Got a Sashiko machine

02:15:53 Kippy Alston: But this is good too

02:16:14 Valerie Hebert Jennings: I have one but haven't had time to sit and play with it yet.

02:16:19 Glenda Marsh: I didn't think BL was still manufacturing those??

02:16:37 Roxanna: Does that thread melt? Brand that's best for the machine???

02:16:48 Sue Cleek: My Girlfriends Quilt Shoppe is getting ready to do a bunch of videos demonstrating the Sashiko machine if anyone is interested.

02:16:51 Kim Harrington: All of the above... LOL

02:16:58 Alice Curtis: I have the Sashiko machine. Love being able to use a heavy thread in it. Makes a beautiful stitch.

02:17:57 Mike: Monofilament can melt if you hold a hot iron on it for too long. We always recommend following manufacturer's recommendations.

02:18:29 Sue Cleek: Sulky

02:18:38 kfoxworthsews@yahoo.com: yli has it

02:18:42 Elizabeth Gibson: Superior makes a nice monofilament

02:18:54 Cathy M: Madeira makes a monofilament

02:18:56 Glenda Marsh: one tip on monofilament, when you finish the project make sure you take it out of thread path!! It's very easy to forget then you've got it & your new thread in the path!

02:19:40 April Dunn: some of it is nylon and some polyester

02:19:40 Connie Lucero: Be aware... Older monofilament will start breaking apart over time.

02:19:42 Kippy Alston: Put those glasses on! Honest they help

02:19:47 Ruth Parness: Must we use canvas?

02:19:58 Kippy Alston: Imagine that

02:21:21 Cindy Yialouris: So you use monofilament in the top always with the stitch, correct?

02:21:38 Mike: For these stitches, yes. Always on top.

02:21:59 Birdie Cade: A dropcloth (fabric) makes a great fabric for pillows, etc. Also very inexpensive.

02:22:30 Kippy Alston: I gotta try this! Amazing!

02:22:57 Cindy Yialouris: Would 40wt. work too?

02:24:07 Kim Harrington: Quilting stencils work too

02:24:31 Kippy Alston: White thread on navy blue would look really like Sashiko!

02:24:41 April Dunn: have you tried 60 wt

02:24:41 TroyJennene Gibbs: 🍪 great, good texture on fabric

02:25:12 KalonaLi: Are there instructions in the Babylock manual on how to set up for this stitch? (I'm not near my manual)

02:25:37 Roxanna: Do you ever use mono in the bobbin? Several years ago I "wrecked" a machine winding a bobbin with it

02:25:43 Kim Harrington:IQ

02:25:47 Kippy Alston: Fills

02:25:55 Margret: Is 50 wt thread always cotton thread?

02:26:08 Glenda Marsh: go to the serger & do chain stitch??

02:26:08 Kippy Alston: Rows of motifs

02:26:18 Elizabeth Gibson: a fills enlarged to an interesting background

02:26:20 Sue Cleek: You could use your cording foot with heavier weight thread.

02:26:21 Kim Harrington:Embroidery

02:26:23 Cathy M: I have made stripes by stitching 1/4 or 3/8" grograin ribbon onto the fabric

02:26:31 TroyJennene Gibbs: I like using Serger chains & eyelash threads

02:26:36 Kippy Alston: Couching

02:26:41 Kim Harrington: Ricrac

02:26:54 Cathy M: The grosgrain ribbon is great with character stitches

02:27:05 Kim Harrington:Petersham

02:27:16 Elizabeth Gibson: I love that you encourage changing things up

02:27:18 Karen Rosselli: I use mono in both top and bobbin all the time for quilting. love it

02:27:20 TroyJennene Gibbs: 🤔

02:27:45 Robin: Could 60 wt colored bobbin thread be used?

02:27:57 Kim Harrington:Sometimes the motif stitches look backwards

02:28:06 Mike: Yes Robin :)

02:28:16 Robin: Great!

02:28:21 Mike: You may need to flip the Motif Kim.

02:28:58 Kim Harrington:I've tried and they are mirror image

02:29:38 Lori Wesley: can you select multiple and move at the same time - or only one at a time?

02:29:47 Mike: One at a time

02:29:53 Sue Cleek: How do you keep them straight, as I know the needle moves around as opposed to being straight?

02:30:11 Mike: These are embroidery, so the machine makes the line

02:30:33 Mike: On the sewing side, if you are using the Character Stitches, we recommend using a stabilizer under your fabric.

02:34:39 Kim Harrington: It looks great!

02:38:26 Arlene Kelsey: love that option for colors

02:40:31 Deb Bone-Harris: that was worth this whole class!@@*#&#^

02:40:55 Jenny: On the IQ side should I have received those custom stitches with the Vision upgrade?

02:41:52 Mike: Jenny - the custom stitches are from the Design Suite Holiday Collection #2. We also have Design Suite Holiday Collection #1 available. They are separate purchases and not included in the machine.

02:42:00 Kippy Alston: Love it!

02:42:42 Patt Clancy: love it

02:42:58 TroyJennene Gibbs: that was fabulous!!! great options

02:43:00 Deb Bone-Harris: LOVE that pattern repeat feature and how you applied it!!
woohoooooooooooo

02:43:06 Teresa W: can you mix and match Design Suite stitches with the stitches on machine?

02:43:08 Kim Harrington: I would use the design suite with the very large size motifs

02:43:11 Carol: Love this! I love the creativity!

02:43:27 Arlene Kelsey: not much sleep gonna happen tonight...lol

02:43:28 Carol: Have not used my design suite yet. Good reason to do it!

02:43:35 Margret: waiting on Non-holiday designs. Are they coming?

02:43:43 Colleen n Ron: I wish I was as fast as you!!!! I just learned a lot by watching you go through all that...

02:43:52 Ruth Parness: What fabric are you using for the pillow front?

02:44:14 Teresa W: yes that is what I was thinking...thanks

02:44:52 carole woehlke: Put a few rows of star motifs in low left corner in blue and you have a flag

02:44:53 Teresa W: got it... that's terrific!!

02:44:56 Kim Harrington: Unlimited possibilities

02:45:01 Kippy Alston: Wow!

02:45:19 TroyJennene Gibbs: I like Software so you can create your own designs

02:45:33 Cathy M: I think I missed the release of the this design pack

02:45:41 Kippy Alston: My mind is on overload! And we haven't even started the pillow!

02:45:58 Sharon Vaulman: Im with you Kippy

02:46:09 TroyJennene Gibbs: I agree Kippy Alston

02:46:16 Mike: Holiday Collection #1 released on March 1 and Holiday Collection #2 released on June 1

02:46:31 Kippy Alston: 🤔

02:46:52 TroyJennene Gibbs: Great feature is ability to watch 500 times to get the idea of what you did

02:46:54 Candy: Love all the options! Learn from all the ideas from everyone.

02:46:57 Deb Bone-Harris: I learn more when you go rogue and just experiment!

02:47:11 Kim Harrington: Patty wants us to be on overload, so she feels like she challenged us! 😂

02:47:12 Carolyn Sippel: Are the Design Suite #1 and #2 and Mastering IQ Design Instruction & Projects in stock or are they back order if I order them from my dealer?

02:47:20 Cathy M: Yep, I was off the grid in a remote wilderness in Alaska on June 1st so I missed the release of number 2

02:47:22 Patt Clancy: Do we need to purchase Design Suite at retailer or order from BL?

02:47:27 Sandra Lynn: Thank you for showing us alternate ways of being able to accomplish similar thing.

02:47:37 Sharon Vaulman: I will definitely have to watch this again when I am in front of my machine.

02:48:41 Sandra Lynn: I sometimes forget about the tools that are there to make it smarter, than me making it harder 😂

02:49:05 Patt Clancy: Thank you You're the Brains!

02:49:26 Teresa W: Definitely NOT bored...more overload on the possibilities 🤔

02:49:26 Colleen n Ron: wow

02:49:36 Colleen n Ron: love it

02:49:44 Carol: Wow!

02:49:54 Teresa W: do you ever sleep?? 😊

02:49:57 Cathy M: Patty, you are the WINNER of yarn couching expert award

02:50:08 Sharon Vaultman: Agree

02:50:12 TroyJennene Gibbs: love that yarn project

02:50:13 Leah: I would love to have a job doing exactly what I love to do as a hobby. :)

02:50:13 Carol: Love learning the techniques as well as how to use the different feet.

02:50:23 Jeanie Lyle: I've not done any yarn couching but have been wanting to make pillows for all of our grandchildren with their names on them using couching!

02:50:57 Kim Harrington: I want to make that purse you made Patty.

02:52:51 Sharon Vaultman: I haven't done any couching and have been dying to,

03:00:22 Sandra Lynn: This is great! Thank you, I have been so busy making other things I forgot about how to do this fun technique! I am really looking forward to doing this project.

03:02:57 Robin: I usually never walk away from my machine, but if I do, I use the IQ monitor.

03:04:32 Sharon Vaultman: Any recommendations on the size of yarn?

03:05:07 April Dunn: floss threader

03:05:18 Mike: Medium size yarn, so size 4 or there about.

03:05:27 Mike: Floss Threaders work great

03:05:50 ellenrudd: What needle are you using?

03:06:17 Mike: Just regular embroidery needle. I think we have a 75/11 in at the moment.

03:06:44 Leah: Bought a pack of floss threaders because I was guaranteed to lose the wire.

03:08:18 Leah: should you turn off jump stitch?

03:08:20 Sharon Vaultman: How did you get the screen again

03:08:22 karen ouhrabka: Where is menu for end cutting stitch

03:09:41 kay: Can you use your needle threader for the thread?

03:10:36 Roxanna: We need to see how to fix OUR messes

03:10:37 Kim Harrington: Love it when you have issues here, cuz we see what you do to fix it!

03:11:06 brenda riffe: When I tried couching, my thread showed beside the yarn, not stitching the yarn down.

03:11:41 kfoxworthsews@yahoo.com: if the letters were larger, no issues?

03:12:33 Sharon Vaulman: Your threa is out of the guide

03:12:38 Carolyn: not worsted weight?

03:13:01 Patricia Kropf: The good thing of your machine acts up is we all have problems now and then so you are actually showing us how to fix the problem 😊

03:13:38 brenda riffe: Thank you, I think my ndl position is the first thing I need to check

03:13:40 Jeannie Malatesta: Is this foot included with the Solaris or is it an accessory t purchase?

03:13:53 Carol Clothier: Looks like issue is under the hoop

03:13:55 sgkup: Your yarn is not in the pigtail?

03:13:56 Robin: You don't have your yarn through the loop on the foot.

03:14:23 Glenda Marsh: Is fabric stabilized enough??

03:14:42 Teresa W: yarn is not through the extra guige

03:14:47 Teresa W: guide

03:15:10 Kim Harrington: Patty doesn't use that guide.

03:15:34 April Dunn: Thanks Mike & Patty!!!

03:15:41 Glenda Marsh: and the yarn looks 'tight' in the picture now & not in that squiggly pigtail

03:15:56 Sharon Vaulman: Very useful for all of us when things don't go quite right. No panic

03:16:32 Deb Bone-Harris: this is actually good education seeing this happen - always learn something from your mistakes - cuz we encounter them all the time!!

03:17:06 Kim Harrington: Yes, sometimes I go back and take pictures of what I did so I know next time...

03:17:40 Glenda Marsh: yarn not in that hook?

03:17:43 Roxanna: Size of needle? Does that matter?

03:18:01 Kim Harrington: Working good now!

03:19:11 Robin: Great idea, Kim!

03:19:16 Jeanie Lyle: Can the letters be re-sized at all?

03:20:41 Colleen n Ron: So what ever you chose to use for the O you do that last?

03:21:54 Robin: Does the machine self-regulate the speed?

03:22:02 Carla Shade: Can you use any decorative yarns?

03:22:03 ellenrudd: Is it outlining the outside of the letters?

03:22:59 Kim Harrington: Someone had a variegated yarn that looked great. I think it was on the fb page.

03:25:20 Carol: This intimidates me but I can't wait to try.

03:25:29 Kim Harrington: Imagine if you walked away at the beginning.... 🤪

03:25:49 Ruth Parness: If you trimmed that tail why don't you trim it at the end?

03:25:54 kay: Yes it is

03:25:55 Carol: Yes

03:25:58 Leah: Yes

03:26:00 ellenrudd: Yes, helps me.

03:26:02 Teresa W: definitely helpful

03:26:02 Sharon Vaulman: Yes

03:26:03 Patt Clancy: yes

03:26:11 Leiann: Yes, very helpful!

03:26:24 Colleen n Ron: yes, now I'm not afraid to try it!!!!

03:26:24 Robin: Yes. I hope I can find my foot, though!

03:26:28 Kippy Alston: Did you use tear away underneath?

03:26:29 Connie Lucero: This is a GREAT tutorial. I have the yarn couching setup but have never used it.

03:26:33 Debra Clark: Crate & Barrel Kids has pillows with this same lettering look.

03:26:36 Cathy M: Have you tried eyelash yarn?

03:26:38 Jo-Ann Hayes: Just a question about the other open designs: Can you do a free motion fill after the outlines are done? e.g. the leaves for a fall project.

03:27:19 Cathy M: 👍

03:27:43 Terri Burns: Twist the eyelash around another yarn

03:27:50 Linda McMaster: If making a pillow cover and then it needs washing, would the yard bleed into the fabric?

03:28:15 Colleen n Ron: What type of stabilizer did you end up putting under that?

03:28:37 Kim Harrington: It wouldn't stay together.

03:29:01 Jo-Ann Hayes: I was thinking about the leaves in the same category as the letters. In other words, the embroidery design and then free motion in the sewing side.

03:29:39 Cathy M: I like the couched red letters over the background motifs

03:30:46 Kim Harrington: It was that scrubby yarn!

03:31:20 Donna Guthridge: Are we going to have time to see the other design and zipper?

03:31:24 Colleen n Ron: This is a great new technique to learn...

03:31:24 Roxanna: Reminds me of Zandra's latest long stitching

03:34:21 Jo-Ann Hayes: We are learning so much even though it's not cooperating.

03:34:58 Patricia Kropf: Thank you Patty and mike. 😊

03:35:04 Mike: The Star Design was part of Visionary Stitches. You could use any design you have that you like.

03:35:33 Carolyn Sippel: What are Visionary Stitches and how do you get them?

03:36:28 ellenrudd: Visionary stitches came with upgrade3

03:36:32 Krystal M: I have the upgrade 3 but How do we get the visionary stitches?

03:36:33 Mike: Visionary Stitches was a promotional book of designs that were available for a limited time with the purchase of the Solaris Vision or Upgrade Kit 3 last year. The promotion ended in Dec 2022.

03:37:09 Kim Harrington: Yes

03:37:12 Carolyn Sippel: I bought my upgrade three right after it came out and my dealer never mentioned the Visionary Stitches.

03:37:14 Krystal M: I purchased upgrade 3 last year when it became available

03:37:20 Krystal M: available

03:38:06 ellenrudd: The instructions for getting them was on the card that was packaged inside of the upgrade.

03:38:19 Mike: You will need to reach out to the retailer you purchased from Krystal.

03:38:21 Arlene Kelsey: I thought you did the spacing with the O in there?

03:38:35 Colleen n Ron: I'm LOVING THIS!!!!!! Thank you so much Patty and Mike

03:38:55 Kim Harrington: Love that!

03:39:20 Patt Clancy: Hmmm. I have the upgrade also but I missed the Promotional book. Darn.

03:39:21 Kim Harrington: I was just working with the roses yesterday!

03:40:06 kfoxworthsews@yahoo.com: This is a wonderful project! Another masterpiece in the making! 😊

03:40:41 Cathy M: The promotional book was a download only - there is not a real bound book.

03:41:04 ellenrudd: Patt Clancy It wasn't a book. It was a download. The instructions. For getting it were inside of the upgrade box. Contact CS to see if you can still get it.

03:41:11 Cathy M: If you got the downloaded designs, you also got the instruction book file

03:42:06 Mike: There was a PDF included with the designs. It was a digital book. Again, reach out to the retailer you purchased from and they should be able to help you.

03:42:12 Cathy M: This is a great tutorial on adding the fills under this rose - and other designs

03:42:27 Kim Harrington: Like I said, Unlimited Possibilities

03:44:04 Kim Harrington: Awesome!

03:44:44 Teresa W: Mike, if you got the Solaris Vision, did I understand correctly that the Visionary Stitches were a separate purchase?

03:45:56 Mike: No. Visionary Stitches was a promotional bonus that was included with the Solaris Vision and Upgrade Kit 3. It was available until December 2022. It has never been sold as an optional purchase.

03:47:12 Myrtie: with visionary stitches is it best to leave on a usb stick or load into the machine

03:49:38 Mike: The designs in VS can not be added as a Category in your machine. They can be saved in the internal memory if you choose. The files were a digital download and not provided as a USB. If you have them stored on a USB, I would recommend you also save them to your computer as a backup.

03:50:27 Kim Harrington: Do you have to open up the bottom and top?

03:50:49 Myrtie: yeah I have them on my computer with a usb back up

03:51:01 Mike: You are fine Karen. No problem at all.

03:51:10 Mike: Perfect Myrtie.

03:51:49 Kim Harrington: Oh that's right I forgot you were copying the one that was already open.

03:52:23 Carla McGuire: I'm so excited to learn this. Thanks Patty.

03:52:35 Myrtie: is that redraw fetcher in the IQ section or is it also in embroidery mode

03:53:01 Mike: It's actually in both. You will find it under the Hoop Preview icon on both sides.

03:54:01 Myrtie: cool thanks always amazed there is so many features to this machine

03:54:09 Glenda Marsh: Was Patty's previous demo on yarn couching on Sew Ed?

03:54:25 Robin: This is excellent.

03:54:35 Mike: We do have videos on SewEd featuring Couching.

03:55:31 ellenrudd: Im glad I don't need to take notes for this!

03:55:32 Kim Harrington: This makes me HAPPY 😊

03:55:57 Mike: LOL Ellen - you would need to be a court stenographer :)

03:57:00 Patricia Kropf: Is there a way I can start watching where I stop watching? I am in urgent care.

03:57:27 Kim Harrington: I hope you are ok!

03:58:21 Mike: Oh no, hope you are ok Patricia. There is a Fast Forward on the recording that will allow you to jump to where you were. You just have to recall the approx. time. Take care of yourself!

03:58:34 Karen Rosselli: Try to remember the time and you can fast forward when we get the video

03:59:16 Mike: Kippy - They were a digital download.

04:00:35 Kim Harrington: She needs a little ego boost!

04:00:52 Kim Harrington: We could all clap for her...

04:01:06 sgkup: scotch tape

04:01:07 Carla McGuire: I wish there was just a one time stitch in IQ instead of a double.

04:01:08 Mike: No, they won't be on your account. You would have gotten an email with the link.

04:01:24 Sue Cleek: Is the zipper right side up or down?

04:01:24 Kim Harrington: 🙌🙌🙌

04:01:31 Mike: Right side up.

04:02:04 Mike: No problem.

04:02:04 Sharon Baillie: Tape Mike showed last time

04:02:05 Kim Harrington: Wash away tape

04:02:27 Roxanna: double sided tape or craft tape runner dots

04:02:41 ellenrudd: I use DST to put zippers in bags. It holds really well.

04:02:53 Jeannie Malatesta: Elmer's Washable School Glue sticks work great1

04:03:18 Myrtie: What's DST?

04:03:28 ellenrudd: Double sided tape

04:04:16 Kim Harrington: It's just a normal size #3 zipper right?

04:04:23 Mike: yes

04:04:37 Kim Harrington: Thank you!

04:04:59 Cathy M: I have taped it back

04:05:52 Cathy M: used tape to hold the fabric back away from the zipper

04:06:53 sgkup: What about a bean stitch over the top near the zipper

04:07:18 Carla McGuire: If you wanted to top stitch zipper would you just add another layer at 0.5.

04:08:14 Kim Harrington: What no piping??? LOLLOL

04:08:18 Karen Rosselli: you would be to

04:08:34 Cathy M: Make sure to get the zipper pull inside the stitch line before you sew the back on

04:09:10 Karen Rosselli: you would need to open your zipper before your last stitch tho right?

04:09:16 Kim Harrington: 🤔

04:09:17 Mike: Yes

04:09:27 Donna Guthridge: Fantastic

04:09:30 Kim Harrington: Awesome!!!

04:09:30 Sandra Lynn: I'll have to do that a few times to get it down...it's another spiffy way to do the zipper area!
