00:25:00 Kippy Alston: I did! It was great!

00:25:35 MaryO: I do, Acclaim, but hate to say I've never used it...that's on "The List"...which, at the rate I'm going, I need to live as long as Methuselah!

00:25:39 Sharon Vaulman: Take the serger getaway and you will wonder why you waited so long to get a serger. Love my Triumph!

00:26:00 April Dunn: Next serger Getaway is 9/25-29/2023

00:26:01 Michelle Kaufman: Next Serger Getaway - September 25- September 29

00:26:18 Michelle Kaufman: <https://babylock.com/baby-lock-serger-getaway>

00:26:24 Kathryn Kohler: good tgo know

00:27:24 Kippy Alston: Walmart

00:27:43 April Dunn: I link using a regular size yarn for piping too especially if you have to stitch into a seam

00:27:44 MaryO: I really intend to learn it soon...I am not at home much these days. I looked at the Getaways, but looks like they're for Triumph...I should've bought one, but thought it was overkill for what I do.

00:28:57 April Dunn: I like using regular size yarn too to make piping...especially if I have to stitch in to a seam with a cross seam

00:29:08 .: Great ideas!

00:30:55 Michelle Kaufman: Straight

00:30:55 karen ouhrabka: zigzag

00:30:56 Krystal M: zig

00:30:57 Kathryn Kohler: 103

00:30:58 Karen Schwieger: zig zad

00:30:59 MaryO: zigzag

00:30:59 Robin: zigzag

00:31:01 Bonnie: Center

00:31:01 TroyJennene Gibbs: dcenter

00:31:35 Michelle Kaufman: 🤔

00:31:45 Kippy Alston: 😂😂😂

00:33:03 Robin: From now, I'll make "pipping"!!

00:34:07 Glenda Marsh: if you're making the piping on the serger, would you use a longer stitch length to avoid as much bulk?

00:35:25 Baby Lock: You certainly could adjust the stitch length for the piping. I love that the serger cuts to give you a clean edge.

00:35:31 April Dunn: Glenda, Make the piping (pipping) using just the Chain Stitch so you don't have the overlock bulk

00:35:34 carole woehlke: What is the largest size cord you can use with that foot?

00:35:45 MaryO: These kinds of attachments that make things I'd otherwise not attempt, easy...get me excited about projects, my machines, etc! In the past, I'd avoid "pipping" and things like the plague.

00:37:12 Baby Lock: BLSO-DCF6 Double Cording 4mm-6mm

00:37:42 Kathryn Kohler: what is number of clear piping foot

00:40:12 Baby Lock: ESG-PP Pearl and Piping Foot 4mm

00:40:26 Baby Lock: Darr Piping Magic

00:40:34 Linda McMaster: Thank you

00:43:18 Margret: did you say where you can buy the mesh?

00:43:49 Margret: buy annie?

00:44:30 carole woehlke: Mesh is heat proof?

00:45:30 Katen rosselli: it's the sticky tape above or below the 2" mark?

00:45:49 Glenda Marsh: was that piece hot fix?

00:46:29 Karen Schwieger: One of those craft irons would work well on that

00:46:43 Laurel Moslener: What width?

00:49:22 Donna Guthridge: fusible up or down

00:50:49 Leah G: Oh never lol

00:50:52 Myrtie Biery: who reads patterns???

00:51:04 TroyJennene Gibbs: one could do a double step - by attaching the piping piece to the fabric prior to putting it on the Mesh.

00:51:13 Carol: love how you are showing us so many feet and their uses

00:51:17 MaryO: Is that white pad with measurements an ironing pad? If yes...how do I not have one?!

00:51:22 April Dunn: guess how it works, then read pattern when doesn't work out LOL

00:51:33 Myrtie Biery: works for me

00:51:54 Baby Lock: The iron mat is double sided with a cutting mat on the other side so it has dual purpose.

00:51:57 carole woehlke: GREAT tip!

00:52:10 Kathryn Kohler: is that in directions about the twnsion

00:53:42 MaryO: I have a wool ironing mat with cutting board on opposite side, but you can't iron on the side with the measurements. This will be handy for many of my projects.

00:53:50 Carolyn Sippel: I googled quickly and it appears that the Darr Piping Magic Ruler has been discontinued. Do you know where we might find it - or does the company have a replacement for the original Darr Piping Magic Ruler?

00:54:18 Kathryn Kohler: do you have a favorite iron/

00:54:23 Linda Pacini: Piping Hot Binding is another one that is really good for piping.

00:54:29 Lori Wesley: I couldn't find that Darr Piping on Amazon

00:54:38 MaryO: I will find one...the magic of Google!

00:54:58 Brenda Riffe: Is there a way to move the chat so it's not distracting the demo by popping up to the display screen

00:55:34 Kim Harrington: Drag it away by clicking and dragging top bar

00:55:51 April Dunn: Groovin piping trimming tool

00:56:18 MaryO: You can also just click on the chat icon with your curser and it disappears..reappears when you click again.

00:56:34 Linda McMaster: Will this info be in the instructions?

00:56:46 Glenda Kruger: Susan Cleveland has piping rulers

00:57:01 Baby Lock: You can also click the arrow at the top left of the webinar chat box and close it. But I think it will re-appear.

00:57:12 Baby Lock: We can add that somewhere about the piping ruler.

00:57:32 Lori Wesley: Thanks April - found it

00:59:00 April Dunn: Groovin is the Susan Cleveland

00:59:04 Kippy Alston: Piping hot binding tool

00:59:23 April Dunn: very nice!

01:00:09 Karen Schwieger: what a fun project. My creative mind is working up ideas.

01:00:47 MaryO: Agree Karen!

01:01:48 Kim Harrington: More stable

01:01:58 Leah G: Karen I also agree. Smaller sizes would make great gift baskets to fill with goodies.

01:02:59 Karen Schwieger: Leah - great idea for gift bags.

01:03:08 Leah G: What was the number of the bean stitch again?

01:03:11 Kathryn Kohler: where do you find hotfix tape

01:03:54 Robin: Gift bags is a great idea!

01:04:16 Katen rosselli: @leah if was 1.05

01:04:18 April Dunn: Baby gift/Shower gift back to fill with stuff

01:04:41 Leah G: @Katen thank you

01:04:53 MaryO: I'm thinking on showing this to my niece who I recently gifted a Jubilant to because she wanted to learn sewing. She's creative and artistic and crafty. She will be a Sr next year and mentioned making gifts for some friends...I think this is perfect. Aunt Mary will help with the materials purchase of course. She can start going to estate and garage sales to perhaps score some fabrics.

01:06:04 carole woehlke: Any tips for doing the decorative stitches and guiding the fabric?

01:06:07 April Dunn: Loved it MaryO

01:07:25 Karen Schwieger: Mary O = love your idea. I sew with my granddaughters and always looking for a project for them. 11 and 13.

01:07:26 Kim Harrington: I love the grid

01:08:05 Kim Harrington: Green

01:08:11 MaryO: Thanks April. I gave it to her when I was in Houston (I have family and a house there) and took her to the big quilt show so she could see that quilting is so much more than just quilts. She was so excited. I'd work on this with her to help and I have all the feet to make it easier for her.

01:08:38 Leah G: The grid is a great tool.

01:08:54 Linda McMaster: I would probably use the foot width, too, but like using the machine to help remember it is there!!

01:09:18 April Dunn: the grid will also be nice when stitching one direction and the opposite direction ot keep it from stitching askew

01:09:43 TroyJennene Gibbs: QUESTION: Is it hard or difficult to bean stitch on the mesh with the fleece lining?

01:09:47 Leah G: So far this does not seem too hard for this old mind to figure out. Loving the project.

01:10:01 Susan Measures: what do you do when you only have double sided fusible? adhere to the mesh?

01:11:59 April Dunn: Teflon pressing sheet might help for that too

01:14:47 Kippy Alston: Did the sticky side of fusible fleece go next to the mesh or the fabric?

01:15:02 Baby Lock: Kippy -the fabric

01:15:10 Kippy Alston: 🧵

01:15:27 Baby Lock: some people asked about double sided fusible...hence the pressing cloth suggestions.

01:15:37 Glenda Marsh: are you talking about like a 12 wt thread?

01:16:30 TroyJennene Gibbs: Fabric options on this beach bag are good too . .using home dec weight type fabric would work as well

01:17:13 Leah G: yes

01:17:16 Carol: yes

01:17:19 sgkup: No

01:17:19 Sharon Vaulman: yes

01:18:06 MaryO: Have not made one, but now...going on "The List".

01:18:41 carole woehlke: Binding some of those Annie bags requires ALOT of wine and cussing!

01:19:03 Robin: 😊

01:19:15 Sharon Baillie: Can you give link to by Annie please

01:19:19 MaryO: LOL Carole

01:19:36 carole woehlke: A cork screw is my favorite By Annie tool!

01:19:47 Baby Lock: <https://www.byannie.com/patterns>

01:20:02 Leiann: LOL Carole!!

01:22:15 Elizabeth P: wont the mesh poke through the cotton?

01:22:48 April Dunn: could you also slide a stip of fusible too

01:23:04 Leah G: Instead of pinning could you just glue before you sew?

01:24:05 Myrtie Biery: this is where I like using an edge foot

01:24:35 carole woehlke: Binding foot?

01:24:47 Karen Schwieger: Myrtle - the 1/4" foot or is there another one?

01:25:14 Leah G: Like the elephant pin cushion. :)

01:25:49 Leiann: I agree Myrtie - the edge foot is what I like to use.

01:25:58 Kim Harrington: I use a stiletto

01:26:25 April Dunn: I agree Kim H

01:27:04 Connie Lucero: Does it help to raise the pressure foot when you stop to remove the pin?

01:27:27 Patt Clancy: Is the dual feed foot the same as the walking foot?

01:27:39 Kim Harrington: So Pretty!

01:28:30 carole woehlke: LOVE that foot for By Annie bags!!

01:29:08 Sharon Vaulman: When would you use each foot?

01:30:08 Janet Woodruff: yes

01:30:18 Lynn Henderson: 0001210101

01:33:18 TroyJennene Gibbs: 🤔

01:33:29 Glenda Marsh: so is that smaller binding down one side then another piece done into the corner & down?

01:33:30 Donna Guthridge: I meant the binding. Do you go around the corners

01:33:30 carole woehlke: The Gypsy Quilter jelly roll tube maker is GREAT for making bindings with a 2.5" strip.

01:33:59 Donna Guthridge: Okay Thanks

01:34:05 Glenda Marsh: ok I see what you mean now

01:34:16 Judith Welch: did you do piping at the top

01:58:54 Kim Harrington: Did you use inks to color in the stitching on the wall? I remember you telling us something about that, but I can't remember what you said.

01:59:06 Linda Pacini: Hey Patt! Just saw your chat! Hey back sistah!

02:01:50 Kim Harrington: Thanks, I thought he said something like that.

02:02:09 Robin: I have problems with straight-ness, too.

02:02:19 carole woehlke: I found that I need to do a practice piece BEFORE I do it on my project (on sew side)

02:03:10 Kippy Alston: Love that hoop!

02:03:12 Karen Schwieger: yay = i have that one from my old ellisimo

02:03:25 Robin: Love that hoop!

02:03:33 Patsy Drindak: I love the border hoop, too!

02:03:54 Baby Lock: You would want to ask your Retailer for pricing.

02:04:13 Kim Harrington: Mine went with my Ellisimo when I upgraded to the Destiny.... 🙄

02:05:21 Kim Harrington: I have the short one. Not quite as useful...

02:05:25 Barbara: what size do you use the most?

02:08:08 Kim Harrington: Yes! What Colleen said!

02:09:33 Baby Lock: Thank you guys!

02:13:22 Mary B: What stitch number is this again?

02:13:26 Donna Guthridge: Do you have an idea of price?

02:13:31 Lisa Nalean: Joined a little late... what needle to use for mesh?

02:13:33 Robin: It's a race for me, but still fun!

02:13:41 Cindy: I can hardly hear anything does Chris have his mic on?

02:13:49 Colleen n Ron: Why didn't you make it bigger to come down further on your fabric???

02:13:58 April Dunn: hearing just fine

02:14:12 husto: Would you recap bringing decorative stitches into the embroidery side please.

02:14:19 Colleen n Ron: Oh I see you are going to move your fabric down?

02:14:36 Cindy Yialouris: You could move it down instead of adding that last design right?

02:15:18 Leah G: yes can see it

02:15:19 Colleen n Ron: I don't have that hoop so not sure how it works.

02:15:24 Cindy Yialouris: Oh, I see you are going to move it up

02:15:55 Colleen n Ron: ok

02:23:22 Robin: Great, thank you!

02:23:23 Karen Schwieger: wow - didn't know about the thread marks

02:23:34 Patricia Kropf: This machine is so amazing. I did not know about this technique {registration mark} before watching you today. Thank you.

02:23:54 Robin: Learned about them on my Ellegante.

02:24:20 Carolyn: didn't know about that either

02:24:35 Colleen n Ron: 151 I thought you said

02:24:57 Carol: Is that hoop 4x12?

02:25:15 Myrtie: 179

02:25:17 Colleen n Ron: Oh that's right you looked for a sewing one

02:26:08 carole woehlke: Could you embroidery with a heavier thread?

02:27:10 Barbara: which size do you use the most?

02:27:10 Judith Welch: can fabric go all the way through the hoop.?

02:27:29 Arlene Kelsey: learned about that hoop when at st louis destiny getaway.. used one there to sample it and still have the directions from then. it all lined up the first time.. I was sold on it!!!!

02:27:50 Kim Harrington: I had a terrible time using it in a project. 12 wt

02:28:45 Carol Clothier: How about magnetic hoop?

02:31:13 Cindy Yialouris: Would you use sticky back wash away?

02:31:51 carole woehlke: Could you use the border hoop?

02:32:17 Kim Harrington: I ruined a piece of burnout silk with sticky wash-away. So sad

02:32:20 Laura: If you use a DIME hoop would you need any stabilizer?

02:33:30 Kippy Alston: What about the cross stitch designs? Compatible?

02:34:37 Elizabeth P: on the blue one what do you mean running the stitch twice?

02:35:08 Barbara: what is long stitch?

02:35:45 Jeanie Lyle: We can stitch on wood????

02:38:17 Terri Burns: Can you design a long stitch in IQ?

02:38:21 Carolyn: Have you seen Zandra Shaw long stitch technique?

02:38:39 Colleen n Ron: they are off

02:39:30 Baby Lock: Zandra has been doing amazing things with creating fun designs with those long stitches. Pretty Amazing.

02:40:31 Colleen n Ron: so you would obviously use just one bobbin and color then correct?

02:40:42 April Dunn: we can use the positing stick her too?

02:41:44 Colleen n Ron: what about using cotton thread?

02:42:00 Laurel Moslener: Can you use 2 threads together of 40 wt.

02:43:45 Kim Harrington: We're all mesmerized!

02:43:46 Elizabeth P: I tried 2 thread with mixed results in embroidery and quilting

02:43:48 Teresa W: do you need to adjust your presser foot?

02:44:20 carole woehlke:What do you mean to use 2 threads??

02:44:50 Colleen n Ron: yes Kim we are all mesmerized!!!!

02:45:05 Colleen n Ron: yes

02:45:29 Kim Harrington:Yes! My kids and I loved the spirograph

02:45:32 Kippy Alston: You are not that old Mike!

02:46:57 Terri Burns: Last class you eluded to wrapped hoops as a problem. Can you elaborate?

02:47:05 Kippy Alston: Naw! Just young pups!

02:47:46 Kim Harrington:It's an amazing design!

02:47:52 carole woehlke:Do it!

02:48:04 Nancy Nelson: Zandra uses felt in her hoops

02:48:12 Kippy Alston: A yo-yo or a button would be nice in the center

02:48:18 Patricia Kropf: I bet you are young enough to be my sons and daughter😂

02:48:25 April Dunn: How about an initial in the middle

02:48:28 Robin: Yep

02:48:30 Krystal M: What speed do you have it?

02:48:31 Joy: How does it get away with doing such long stitches?

02:49:06 Colleen n Ron: Can we do long stitches in our Palette software?

02:50:28 Leah G: Will the machine slow it down from any speed you have it set at?

02:50:42 Kim Harrington:People are already trying to copy Mila and Zandra's jump stitch techniques... 😊

02:51:12 Kim Harrington:Stamp

02:51:15 Colleen n Ron: add a circle

02:51:21 Joy: IQ Designer

02:51:27 Leah G: fill stitch

02:51:27 Carol: Applique

02:51:31 Kippy Alston: Button

02:51:35 Arlene Kelsey: what do you mean by stamp?

02:51:41 Joy: Decorative stitch

02:51:41 Kippy Alston: Yep

02:52:39 Robin: Whoa!

02:55:05 carole woehlke: This is where you might see the pixelation??

02:55:37 Colleen n Ron: triple

02:56:50 Kim Harrington: I was thinking that maybe the back of the design could be covered with vinyl so that putting stuff in and out of the bag wouldn't catch on the long bobbin threads.

02:57:25 Kim Harrington: That's a great idea!

02:57:34 April Dunn: Kim the tulle they are using would be good too

02:57:46 Kim Harrington: Yes! for sure

02:57:53 Kippy Alston: Kim, these two are full of good ideas!

02:57:57 karen ouhrabka: Stability

02:57:58 Robin: Support

02:58:01 April Dunn: support stitches

02:58:01 carole woehlke: Won't sink stitches

02:58:02 Joy: Keep threads from sinking

02:58:03 Kippy Alston: Stability

02:58:04 Janet Woodruff: Thank you so much for all your ideas!

02:58:04 Kim Harrington: Roundness

02:58:10 Cindy Yialouris: stabilization

02:58:24 Teresa W: like using a topper

02:58:47 Laurel Moslener: What size needle are you using for the 30 wt thread?

02:58:58 carole woehlke: WOW!

02:59:33 Carol: I can't wait to try this!

02:59:54 Kim Harrington: What would you not do Patty?

03:00:30 Patricia Kropf: I love the projector ❤️❤️❤️❤️

03:00:30 Sharon Baillie: Needed to learn this. Have flags that white stripes are showing as background instead of stitches and this can fill them

03:00:35 Kim Harrington: A tutu

03:00:37 carole woehlke: Don't cut the tulle too close...give dimension

03:00:46 Kippy Alston: Very nice!

03:00:48 Jeanie Lyle: Love it!!!

03:00:49 Sharon Vaultman: Looks awesome

03:00:53 Kim Harrington: Beautiful!!!

03:01:05 April Dunn: and this design kind of mimics the daisys

03:01:08 Colleen n Ron: Love this design... and how you added things to it.

03:01:22 Connie Lucero: I really like this design and technique!

03:01:23 Kippy Alston: Could you do a monogram?

03:01:31 Linda McMaster: If wanting to add a pocket to the inside I can add this at this point?

03:01:34 Arlene Kelsey: thanks for showing that !

03:01:39 TroyJennene Gibbs: it would be nice to have a "beach theme" like flip flops, or sand castle, etc.

03:02:33 April Dunn: interesting mike thinks beach means cocktail

03:02:36 Colleen n Ron: If I were going to add vinyl I would wait til after the embroidery was done and maybe only put it across that design and then bind those edges.

03:02:37 Cara: So you just pulled the tulle off or did you cut it off?

03:02:49 Kippy Alston: Called Coastal designs. Anchors etc.

03:03:06 Patricia Kropf: I would add the pocket to the outside. Inside you will see it like a double layer.

03:03:08 TroyJennene Gibbs: @April Dunn that is funny

03:03:55 Colleen n Ron: what about handles?

03:04:33 Kippy Alston: Would you stitch it twice?

03:04:37 CindyH: what is magic thread?

03:05:18 CindyH: Ohhhhhh! thanks!

03:05:39 Joy: Can't hear Patty

03:06:07 Kippy Alston: Where in south are you from? I live in Texas!

03:06:45 Baby Lock: Mike is from Georgia

03:06:55 Laurel Moslener: Some of the coastal designs are 96 mins. Is that to long to stitch?

03:07:23 Kippy Alston: Love this!

03:08:04 Kim Harrington: Looks so nice on the inside too!

03:09:57 Robin: Would make a good small shopping bag.

03:10:07 Kim Harrington: What do you need to cut the cutting mats up?

03:10:22 Sharon Vaulman: Great idea! It kills me to throw out my old mats.

03:10:59 TroyJennene Gibbs: yes, those plastic canvas is what I used also, plus painters canvas when on sale

03:11:06 carole woehlke: Most glass cutting places (ACE hardware) custom cut acrylic

03:11:35 Robin: They have cheap, thin, plastic cutting boards at Dollar Tree that cut up fine.

03:12:02 April Dunn: Robin great idea..foldable cutting board

03:12:41 Melanie: I use foam board from Home Depot

03:13:02 carole woehlke: Steal the campaign signs

03:13:25 April Dunn: carol OH NO 😂

03:14:17 Baby Lock: You all are funny! Please don't get arrested for stealing signs to make your bag:)

03:15:01 carole woehlke: You could have your fancy bag all packed for jail!

03:15:22 Kim Harrington: 🤔😂🤔

03:15:42 Teresa W: Love the way you folded in the corners at the end!

03:15:42 Kippy Alston: Love those handles!

03:16:00 Sharon Baillie: Pa elections are over and their were losers who have not collected their signs

03:16:11 carole woehlke: Plumbers plastic tubing in the handles makes them nice also.

03:16:18 Kim Harrington: I love the way the handles look!

03:16:20 Colleen n Ron: Perfect excellent class Mike, Patty and April. Loving these advanced classes...

03:16:33 Dee from NH: The edge joining foot is great to stitch down the sides of handle strips. Helps me keep my stitching straight

03:16:42 Teresa W: I have used webbing inside the handles to make them stronger

03:16:43 Krystal M: Could you recap the bag size if changing size to 18x24

03:16:45 April Dunn: Plumbers piping in handles, great idea

03:16:48 Donna Guthridge: Thanks for this class. It was great

03:16:54 Judith Welch: love this project!

03:17:20 Teresa W: great idea about the mesh!!

03:18:18 carole woehlke: Never thought I would be shopping at Home Depot for sewing supplies!

03:18:47 Kippy Alston: Carole, they have great stuff!

03:19:00 Kippy Alston: 😊

03:19:00 Krystal M: what did u mean by add 1/2 inch and double it

03:19:18 Janet Woodruff: If you use refrigerator tubing, it is only about 1/4" round and flexible enough to bend in the shape of a handle

03:19:57 Krystal M: Ok thanks

03:19:58 Robin: Plastic tubing as used for aquariums, only larger.

03:20:08 TroyJennene Gibbs: Good definition

03:20:15 Elle McKirdy: Cute project! Thanks!!

03:20:21 TroyJennene Gibbs: Got the instructions printed out

03:22:12 cara dorn: really cute, Patty

03:22:25 Elle McKirdy: What double sided fusible do you both prefer for appliques - especially when there are several layers. One brand I tried seemed to shred my thread more than another.

03:26:57 Patsy Drindak: By Annie mesh is not very stiff. Would it still work?

03:27:12 sgkup: Is there an easy way to load these to your machine. I have Design 1 and you have to go and load each design separately instead of being able to load it all at once.

03:27:13 April Dunn: Pam's is PVC/polyester

03:27:23 Linda McMaster: I have a lot of different colors of the mesh, but liking the blue turquoise!

03:27:27 karen ouhrabka: Do you have to use motif designs on a usb to go to IQ designer or do you need additional software

03:27:45 Elle McKirdy: Is there a double sided fusible that you prefer for appliques? One brand I used seemed to shred my thread more than others.

03:27:48 karen ouhrabka: Thank you

03:29:15 Joy: Not sticky tho

03:30:02 Kippy Alston: Are the motifs in new design suite not able to be used in IQ?

03:30:03 cara dorn: you talked earlier about a dynamic dual feed foot. Please elaborate.

03:31:11 Elle McKirdy: What is the IQ book?

03:31:15 Sharon Vaulman: Thank you so much for a great class!! I will have to save my allowance so I can afford the long continuous hoop and the designs.
