Over a 22 year career in the United States Navy Chief Marsack has been called upon to lead and carry out some of the nation's most dangerous jobs and missions.

His reputation as a tough, no-nonsense leader who completes the job no matter what, galvanizes teams to run at maximum efficiency, and is committed to mentoring junior personnel is well known in the prestigious Special Operations Community.

The attribute that he is most known for is his unique skill set to motivate a team to operate as a unit and perform to its fullest potential, and his ability to recruit, train, and create high level leaders by instilling in them a "no excuses" attention to detail, disciplined mindset, placing specific emphasis aggressively on accepting personal responsibly for EVERYTHING that happens to them, and their team.

Chief Marsack attributes his illustrious military achievements to his dedication and commitment to the "TEAM" concept, as he believes it has been the foundation of which has allowed him to accomplish the insurmountable tasks given to him by the United States Navy, Secret Service, and numerous other Federal and local Law Enforcement Agencies throughout his career
