To Whom It May Concern:

Please include the following announcement in the next edition of the Bar Examiner:

Attorney Alfred ("Al") E. Schrader has joined the law firm of Roderick Linton Belfance, LLP as an equity partner. Attorney Schrader is licensed to practice law in both State and Federal Courts in Ohio.

Attorney Schrader received his juris doctor from the Ohio State University Moritz College of Law and is a graduate of Kent State University. Attorney Schrader's primary professional focus has been representing townships and municipalities around the State of Ohio on zoning, annexation, land use and township law issues. He has represented landowners, townships, counties and local governments throughout Ohio and currently serves as part-time special counsel and township attorney for numerous townships located in the Summit, Medina and Wayne County areas.

Attorney Schrader is an active member of the Akron Bar Association where he has been a board member. He is also a member of the Scanlon-Bell Inn of Courts where he has served as its Treasurer and is currently its President-Elect.

Roderick Linton Belfance, LLP was established in 1885 and has offices located in Akron and Medina.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

Very truly yours,

RODERICK LINTON BELFANCE, LLP
