B.C. COVID-19 Update – April 30, 2020

New updates:

3PM – BC health update from Health Minister Dix and PHO Dr. Henry

- Dr. Henry announced that the province will be releasing more modeling on Monday May 4, 2020
- Dr. Henry said that Premier Horgan will be speaking next week on the 'go-forward plan'
- On public health updates, Dr. Henry noted that there are no new LTC outbreaks - but rather more LTC cases.
  - Minister Dix also announced that they will be focused on surgery renewal in the near future.
- Minister Dix said that there is a continuing trend that is positive
- Regarding casino's – Dr. Henry said that this is last on the list for reopening due to the type of physical and social environment.
- Regarding sick-pay under health order – Dr. Henry said she cannot order labor law – the government is looking at ways to support this.
  - Minister Dix said that the government is looking at this as they prepare COVID-19 efforts moving forward. High priority for government. In the new normal “we have to do things differently than we did before - and not going to school or work while sick would be high on that list.”
- Minister Dix gave updates on the Provincial Fair Pharmacare program – individuals can contact 1 800-663-7100 to make changes that would impact deductibles and payment options
- BC (and Canada) is taking part in trials of remdesivir - Dr. Henry said that this is positive but we will proceed with cautious optimism.

Upcoming announcements:

- An update coming later this week on the impact of the new single-care home policy for long-term care workers.
- Minister Dix and Dr. Henry to announce more modelling Monday May 4, 2020.
