

Notice to the profession from the Law Society of BC

COVID-19 update: May 27, 2020

State of emergency extended

The provincial government has further extended the current state of emergency to the end of the day on June 9, 2020. The provincial cabinet has been taking the approach of making renewals of the state of emergency in two-week increments, in order to adjust the order to advice provided by Provincial Health Officer Dr. Bonnie Henry. The latest Order-in-Council renewing the state of emergency may be found here.

Update from the Court of Appeal regarding further suspension of deadlines

The Court of Appeal has issued an updated Notice to the Public that includes new information regarding the continued suspension of service and filing deadlines and an amended Court Proceedings by Video Conference form. The current suspension of service and filing deadlines is being extended from June 1 to June 15, 2020. Further information may be found in the full updated Notice to the Public.